Chinese Red Raiders Strike Near Shanghai

Communist Raiders Strike Only 15 Miles From Shanghai Is Report

NATIONALISTS CLAIM TSINGTAO VICTORY

(BULLETIN)
SHANGHAI, May 9.—(INS)—(Censored)—A Chinese government communiqué said today that the Nationalist troops, counter-attacking under an "air umbrella," have halted a major Communist advance against Shanghai.

By JOHN RICH
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

SHANGHAI, May 9.—(Censored)—Chinese Communist raiders struck 15 miles from Shanghai today and only 10 miles from Woosung Harbor, where U. S. Navy evacuation craft are anchored.

The Nationalists claimed victory, however, in a fierce, four-day battle for Tsingtao, home port of the U. S. west Pacific fleet, some 350 miles north of Shanghai.

They said 8,000 communists were killed and the threat to the port has been averted.

Sporadic Fighting

Officials sources declared that sporadic fighting was taking place at Kating, 15 miles northwest of Shanghai and 10 miles west of Woosung—the point where the Yangtze and Whangpoo rivers converge.

Small U. S. navy boats, held in readiness for the withdrawal of 1,650 Americans in Shanghai, are berthed at Woosung.

Loss of Woosung harbor would permit the communists to close the Whangpoo-Shanghai rivers to all shipping.

A bulletin issued by the Shanghai Nationalist garrison said communist activities on other sectors of the Shanghai front have slackened during the past 24 hours, and indicated the communists are preparing for an invasion of Fukien province.

Organizing Defense

Civil defense is hastily being organized in Shanghai's apartment houses as the communist threat to the city grows. Practice alerts (Continued on Page Two)

PA NEWS OBSERVES

Some trees are reported around the city which are showing pink dogwood blooms. Pa News is told.

Unseasonably warm weather has resulted in the wheat in Lawrence County fields being far advanced in growth for this period of the year Pa News is informed.

A new wrinkle in commercial transportation was observed on a highway east of the city on Sunday afternoon. One of the large auto convoys carrying four new vehicles, was also towing another flat-bottomed trailer upon which was resting a large boat. The vehicle and trailers extended a long distance along the highway.

Pa News learned in a trip east in the vicinity of Huntington, Pa., that news is continuing on Route 22 which will enable motorists to get through that section with ease. The road has been rerouted around the city and finishing touches are being put on a large overhead bridge at the present time.

Shrubbery and outdoor flowers such as tulips and lilacs are at least two weeks farther advanced in the Harrisburg area than they are in this district. It was found by Pa News in a week-end trip to that vicinity. Roses are already beginning to bloom at Hershey, Pa.

Holy Name Society Procession From St. Mary's Church

Start of procession of Holy Name Society members in the anniversary program of Sunday. Procession is leaving St. Mary's church on North street enroute to the Cathedral for further ceremonies of the day.

Holy Name Society Marks Anniversary; Observes Mothers Day

St. Mary's church was filled to capacity—the entire nave and transepts, on Sunday morning, when the solemn high mass of Thanksgiving was sung at 8 o'clock, opening the celebration of the 39th anniversary of the Holy Name society.

Marking sincere devotion on Mother's Day, the procession of the clergy began as the senior male choir sang the ancient Catholic hymn, "On This Day O Beautiful Mother." In their pure white vestments, officers of the mass filled the sanctuary, forming a contrast to the rich scarlet of the Monsignor. Choir boys, acolytes, thurifers and boat-bearers followed by torch bearers served to enhance the beauty and impressiveness of the scene.

Monsignor Presides
Presiding from his pre-dieu was the Very Rev. Monsignor Joseph A. Cousins of Columbus, O., as the high mass began. Rev. Fr. Francis M. McCarter, pastor of St. Mary's, was the celebrant; Rev. Fr. Francis (Continued on Page Six)

Stop Train To Rescue Woman Stuck In Mud

MALDEN, Mass., May 9.—(INS)—A Lynn to Boston commuter train was halted today in Malden while members of the crew rescued an 85-year-old woman who was stuck hip deep in mud in a stretch of marshland.

Mrs. Mary Bova, Everett, became bogged down in the mud while taking a short cut across the marsh to the Mystic river. She was rescued by Engineer Thomas Saville and Conductor George Murdoch of the commuter train, which was halted when Saville noticed her plight.

Mrs. Bova was returned to her home after treatment at the Everett police station. She told authorities she frequently took the shortcut across the marsh during early morning walks, but assured members of her family she'll never try it again.

Two Are Named To Atomic Commission

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON, May 9.—(INS)—President Truman today named Gordon Dean of California and Henry DeWolf Smyth of New Jersey as new members of the atomic energy commission.

Smyth, author of the famed Smyth report on atomic energy, succeeded Robert F. Bacher whose resignation was announced by the White House.

Dean, former assistant to Supreme Court Justice Jackson at the Nuernburg war crimes trials, replaces W. W. Waymack, who resigned several months ago.

Navy Plane Follows 30-Year-Old Route

LISBON, May 9.—(INS)—The U. S. Navy's famous globe-girdling aircraft "Truculent Turtle" following the route of the first air crossing of the Atlantic 30 years ago—arrived at Lisbon today, 16 hours and 49 minutes after taking off from New York.

The big "Turtle" reached Lisbon at 10:59 a. m. GMT (6:59 a. m. EDT). It left New York at 2:10 p. m. EDT, yesterday.

The plane is following the same route as that taken by the Navy's 77-mile an hour canvas and plywood NC-4 which crossed the Atlantic in 19 days back in 1919.

Power Company Electrician Is Severely Burned

James D. Cawthorne, 430 Croton avenue was seriously burned Sunday morning while cleaning insulators in the Cedar Street Substation of Pennsylvania Power Company. Mr. Cawthorne, an electrician in the Company's substation department, it is stated, was working with other members of the maintenance force on equipment that had been de-energized for the cleaning operation. In moving to a new location he apparently swung his leg into a live 24,000-volt circuit adjacent to the de-energized area.

The grounded current flashed over and burned Cawthorne severely about the back, chest and arm. There apparently was no serious shock it is believed since the charge flashed across to the substation structure and not directly through his body. He is in the Jameson Memorial Hospital, where his condition is fair.

The accident caused an interruption of service on all 24,000 volt lines emanating from Cedar Street Substation. The east side of New Castle, the rural area east of town and five large industrial customers were affected for approximately 30 minutes. Lines from the New Castle Power Plant were also interrupted and the plant was down for a short time.

QUAKE REPORTED

CLEVELAND, May 9.—(INS)—John Carroll university reported a "moderate" earthquake today some 9,050 miles southwest of Cleveland, probably in the Dutch East Indies.

Fr. Henry F. Birkenhauer, university seismologist, said the shock was recorded at 10:00.06 a. m. (EST).

Three Injured As Auto Upsets

Car Leaves Road At Harlansburg And Plunges Into Creek

Three persons were injured, two of whom are in the Jameson Memorial Hospital, owing to an auto accident at Harlansburg, at 5:35 p. m.; Sunday. The car, returning from Pymatuning Lake to McKees Rocks, went over a 15 foot embankment, landing upon its side in a creek. The car was damaged considerably.

The injured: Hubert Hall, 15, McKees Rocks, fracture of collar bone and possible fracture of skull.

Roy Giampole, 15, McKees Rocks, another nephew, riding with the driver escaped injury.

According to state police, the four had been fishing at Pymatuning Lake, and were enroute home. Near the junction of the Perry highway and Route 956, which leads from Harlansburg to New Wilmington, the driver reportedly fell asleep.

The car first went off the right side of the road. Celestina awakened and was startled to discover a car coming toward him. He swerved his car to the right and it went across the road, ripped over a guard post, struck the concrete bridge spanning the creek, then plunged downward.

It landed upon its side. Passing motorists, including John James, New Castle police force, rushed to the assistance of the men in the car, righted the vehicle and extricated the four. Two of them were taken in an ambulance to the hospital. State police took the driver to the hospital later.

Two New Garbage Trucks Ordered

City Also Purchases Truck For Use At Municipal Golf Course

When council met Monday in city hall, solons bought three trucks, two complete units for the department of garbage, and one 1/2 ton truck for the golf course. The two old trucks now used by the garbage collectors will be placed in the streets department.

The garbage trucks, complete with Marion-hydro packers, will cost the city a total of $8,173. J. R. Rick Motor Car company got the award.

SWARM OF BEES ON BRINTON HILL

Bees which swarmed at 714 Brinton avenue can be had for the asking, according to the police department.

The bees swarmed there yesterday and immediately the housewife at the address telephoned police, offering to give them to anyone who would catch 'em.

Date Is Set For Inauguration Of Dr. Will W. Orr

Westminster's New President Will Be Inaugurated On October 14

PHILADELPHIAN NAMED TO BOARD

Friday, October 14, is the date chosen for the inauguration of Dr. Will W. Orr, new president of Westminster College. This date was selected by the board of trustees at their meeting at the college in New Wilmington, Saturday, so that many other college heads could be present. The board also has elected Robert G. Dunlop, of Philadelphia, president of the Sun Oil Company, to fill one of the two vacancies existing on the board of directors, and completed plans for an extensive building program at the college.

Although Dr. Orr is already on the job, it was deemed advisable to hold the inauguration ceremony later, as most of the college heads are busy with commencement activities at the present time, and will be less busy in the fall.

Big College Week-end

The election of Mr. Dunlop was a popular one. He is an active layman of the United Presbyterian church in Philadelphia, and interested in college work.

The inauguration program will climax the annual Autumn Week-end at the college. The inauguration program will take place at 10 a. m., Friday morning, October 14, and will be followed by the Dance of the Year that evening, Saturday (Continued on Page Two)

Trucks Parked Along Turnpike In New Protest

BULLETIN

IRWIN, Pa., May 9.—(INS)—A week-end trailer truck "parking" ended today as drivers vowed their vehicles forward for weighing at the Pennsylvania Turnpike entrance near Irwin.

IRWIN, Pa., May 9.—(INS)—Some 200 trailer trucks were spread along the highway between Midway, Pa., and Irwin as drivers threatened to park indefinitely in protest against a state police crackdown on overloading.

Most of the vehicles were clustered near the Irwin entrance to the Pennsylvania Turnpike and police were powerless to act.

Each truck complied with safety regulations by parking on the shoulder of the road and exhibiting warning lights.

Scales had been set up outside the Turnpike entrance because the special state police turnpike detail lacks weighing facilities. The state limit for cargo is 45,000 pounds.

Procedure Followed

The procedure has been to weigh the truck, then take the offender before a justice of the peace and release him after he pays a fine which ranges between $25 to $50. About 50 to 60 trucks paid their fines yesterday and were permitted to move on.

Although many of the vehicles were carrying perishables, the drivers seem determined.

"I'll see my oranges turn to orange juice before I pay the fine," said one stubborn Florida trucker. Most drivers claim the Pennsylvania limit is "unreasonably low" and fails to conform with higher limits in adjoining states.

LEAPS UNDER TRAIN

LANCASTER, Pa., May 9.—(INS)—Edward B. Jacobs, Jr., 33, was killed when he leaped in front of the speeding Penn Texas, crack Pennsylvania railroad flyer, shortly before midnight.

Dr. C. P. Stahr, deputy coroner, issued a verdict of suicide. He said Jacobs had written a three-page letter before he took his life on the rails near the city water works.

Red Regime In China Poses Problems For U.S.

By JOHN A. REICHMANN

WASHINGTON, May 9.—The problem of dealing with the Communist regime in China as it takes over major portions of that country promises today to become one of the state department's major headaches.

The issue has not yet come to the front. At present chief administration attention is being spent on heading off congressional demands for fulfillment of assistance for the Nationalist regime.

The administration advisers believe it is entirely too late for such action and are determined to let the dust clear from the China collapse before determining future policy.

Some problems will not wait, however. The majority of American investments in China are now in areas under Communist control or its shadow.

Demand Drastic Steps

Demands that the United States take immediate and drastic steps to protect those investments are likely to grow. But, only armed intervention could effectively do so, and that is one step which is completely ruled out of Washington thinking.

Nor can the United States recognize the Communist regime while still considering the Nationalist government the only legal government of the land.

For the time being consular officers are remaining at their posts throughout the occupied area. They will attempt to protect American interests wherever necessary.

The situation is said to be similar to that prevailing in the Spanish war. Only when a single central government was established was full recognition extended.

Dearborn Mayor Leads Marchers At Ford Plant

DETROIT, May 9.—(INS)—Pickets at the strike-bound Ford Rouge plant had the support today of Mayor Orville Hubbard of Dearborn, Mich., after the company rejected his offer as mediator in the four-day-old walkout of 62,000 UAW-CIO members.

He led a boisterous parade of 5,000 striking marchers around the plant last night to the blaring accompaniment of a union band a few minutes after his aid in settling the dispute was refused.

Mayor Hubbard joined UAW President Walter P. Reuther at the head of the parade. At a rally following the demonstration he declared:

"If young Henry Ford would put on his overalls like his grandfather did, he'd go down on the assembly line and find out there is a speed-up."

Ford announced rejection of all offers of outside assistance in settling the walkout of Rouge and Lincoln-Mercury workers. At the same time the auto firm renewed its proposal to submit the "speed-up" issue to arbitration.

Mayor Hubbard's offer to mediate the dispute was made to Henry Ford II, Reuther and Gov. G. Mennen Williams. He invited them to meet in his office Thursday in a "supreme civic effort" to settle the strike.

Statehood For Western Germany Is Moving Closer

Constitution Approved—Provides Democratic Elections And Bill Of Rights

FEDERAL REPUBLIC FOUNDATION LAID

By TOM AGOSTON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

BONN, May 9.—Western Germany moved a step closer to statehood today with the approval of a Communist-opposed constitution which provides for democratic elections and a bill of rights.

The constitution was adopted last night by the west German constituent assembly at Bonn, by a vote of 53 to 12. It lays the foundation for a federal republic—the first German government since Adolf Hitler's Third Reich collapsed under the weight of allied arms, exactly four years ago yesterday.

The constitution, which also bans aggressive war, is expected to be approved speedily by the American, British and French military governors. It must also be approved by eight of the eleven states in western Germany.

Provides Hint Of Red Stand

One of the two Communist deputies who voted against the constitution, Max Reimann, provided a foreshadowing of the stand Russia is expected to take when the council of foreign ministers convene in Paris May 23, to discuss Germany. Reimann charged that the document "does not represent the bill of the German people" and stressed the need for unity with Communist-run eastern Germany.

(British Foreign Secretary Bevin, in Berlin, said that Britain will not agree to any agreement which would "destroy the freedom of the German people." He presumably demanded to remove all occupation troops, which might pave the way for a German Communist coup.)

Eight Months Of Work

The constitution, containing 147 articles and 13,000 words, passed a third plenary reading—actually (Continued on Page Two)

Commissioner To Run Berlin May Now Be Proposed

PARIS, May 9.—(INS)—A high diplomatic source disclosed today that France may propose the appointment of a United Nations high commissioner to run Berlin.

This possibility, the source reports, is being actively considered by the French foreign office with the view of submitting it as a formal proposal when the big four foreign ministers meet in Paris on May 23.

It is understood that the matter will be discussed with American and British representatives at a special preliminary tri-partite conference of the western allies, expected to get underway in Paris this week.

Report Confession By Youth That He Killed Three

CLEVELAND, May 9.—(INS)—John Hrehov, 26, confessed to Cleveland police today that he stabbed three youths to death and critically wounded another with a trench knife in a street brawl early yesterday.

Hrehov walked into central police headquarters and said: "I think you want me for those stabbings on Broadway."

He was carrying a lunch under his arm and said he didn't know he had killed the three youths until he "read it in the paper this morning."

Those killed in the fight were Clarence Krese, who was 25 yesterday; his brother, Wilham, 21, and Robert Hrdy, 18. In poor condition at St. Alexis hospital with a wound in his back was Joseph Vales, 18.

Hrehov named 24-year-old Joseph Pesek as his accomplice. He told police the death weapon was in his home.

Plans Are Made For Berlin After Blockade Lifting

By RICHARD S. WEIL
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

BERLIN, May 7.—West Berlin officials drew up detailed plans today to speed everything from butter to building blocks and oranges into their city when the Soviet blockade ends on May 12.

Allied and German officials are busily completing an "emergency transport" plan whereby priority will be given to coal and machine equipment—the latter for the besieged city's new unfinished power plant.

A tentative schedule calls for 20 freight trains to roll into Berlin the first day the blockade ends. Thirty trains are slated for the second day and every day thereafter, with a target mark of 12,000 tons per day.

Two Berlin-Hanover buses and a daily inter-zonal passenger trains also are anticipated.

Negotiations Expected
Open negotiations with the Soviet-controlled German economic commission are planned, to obtain vegetables and fresh milk.

from the Russian zone. German magistrate members also hope to import immediately oranges and lemons.

Under the present scheme, the trains will be used for staples, while the airlift—which is expected to continue for several weeks—will handle fresh meat, butter and fish. The magistrat hopes to reactivate the city's dormant chocolate and coffee roasting factories.

May 12, the day the ten-month-old blockade and Allied counter-blockade end, will see two rival demonstrations in the former German capital. The Soviet-sponsored Democratic bloc will mass in Unter Den Linden, while western parties will assemble at the Platz der Republik.

Western newspapers claimed today that Col. Serge Tulpanov, Soviet propaganda chief, recently warned Russian military leaders and Communist officials:

"Lifting the blockade unquestionably contains dangers for the political development of the Soviet zone, but we must lift the blockade because there's no other way to achieve east zone recovery."

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

Howard Lindsay and Russel Crouse, the authors of "Life with Mother" and "State of the Union," are not only successful collaborators, but inseparable friends. When they are not actually together, they talk to one another on the phone—upon arising after a meal, just before retiring for the night.

When the Lindsays moved recently into a new home on Ninety-fourth street, Mrs. Lindsay told friends, "I knew Howard would take it the moment I noticed a telephone in the elevator. Now he can phone Crouse while he's riding down from the top floor to the basement. You have no idea what a comfort to him that is!"

Frank B. Gilbreth, the hero of "Cheaper by the Dozen," believed in leaving nothing to chance. He wrote to authorities at Harvard that when he died, his brain was willed to the University medical school. In a postscript he continued, "My hat is size seven and three-eighths in case you want to get a jar ready."

Quaker City Jury Gives Death Verdict

Returns Death Verdict After 15-Hour Deliberation For Robbery-Slaying Charge

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.—(INS)—A Philadelphia jury Friday returned a verdict of death in the electric chair for Edward J. Bryant, 25, of Steelton, Pa.

After 15 hours of deliberation, the jury of nine women and three men convicted Bryant of first degree murder in the November 8 robbery-slaying of Joseph Saturno, 65, of Philadelphia.

Bryant is the second defendant to receive the death penalty for the crime.

The other, Joseph Chambers, is awaiting disposition of a new trial motion under a jury's death verdict. He was convicted two months ago.

Judge Eugene V. Alessandrini deferred sentence on Bryant until he can hear argument for a new trial.

The pair are accused of having entered Saturno's home where he had a small shop and slugging him to death.

Report Two Cases Of Spotted Fever

PHILADELPHIA, May 7.—(INS)—Two children in the Philadelphia area were reported today to be stricken with illnesses diagnosed as Rocky Mountain spotted fever. The disease—caused by the bite of an infected wood tick—is prevalent among rural areas. Physicians at Cooper Hospital, Camden, said they believed six-year-old James Hockin, of Delaware Township, N. J., is suffering from the disease. Robert Thomas, Lower Merion township health officer, announced the Bryn Mawr hospital had reported treating an 18-month-old girl, Geanne Knight, of Gladwyne. The girl is said to have recovered, but the boy is still hospitalized.

SOCIETY & Clubs*DOLORES WOLFE AND RALPH GREEN WED

Lovely was the wedding of Miss Dolores Wolfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Wolfe, of 314 Meyer avenue, and Ralph Eugene Green, of 516 Winter avenue, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Green, of Kingston, Tenn., which was performed Saturday, May 7, at 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

Using the double ring service, Rev. Thomas J. Jones officiated at the ceremony which took place in the First Congregational church in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractive in a street-length dress of egg shell crepe, the bodice being trimmed with Macramé lace. She wore a hat of contrasting tulle and carried a colonial bouquet of white baby mums, and snapdragons, centered with a white orchid. The groom's gift was a gold pendant. She carried a blue handkerchief that had belonged to her grandmother, and there was a sixpence in her shoe.

Miss Mildred Johns, who served as maid-of-honor, was attired in a street-length dress of pale blue crepe, trimmed in white. She wore navy blue accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of mixed spring flowers.

George Smith acted as best man for the groom.

Appropriate nuptial music was offered by Mrs. John Evans, church organist.

Following the exchange of vows, a reception for 50 guests took place in the home of the bride, where Mrs. Theodore Gunnert poured at a table, covered with a white linen cloth, a wedding gift from Ireland to the bride's maternal grandmother, the cloth being 47 years old. Mrs. Charles James, Mrs. Charles Geminehart and Miss Sara James served as aides.

Upon returning from a motor trip to an undisclosed destination, the young couple will be at home on Cleveland avenue, after May 15, to friends.

The bride, a graduate in the class of 1947 of New Castle senior high school, is associated in the accounting business, with her father.

The groom, an alumnus of the same school in the class of 1945, is employed at the United Engineering and Foundry company.

A meeting of business and pleasure occupied members of Lawrence Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution on Saturday afternoon in The Castleton Hotel, with Regent, Mrs. H. E. Golder, presiding.

Recital of ritual and pledge of allegiance to the flag, was followed by singing of one stanza of our National Anthem, with Mrs. Dale Mullen at the piano.

James Brown presented the film "Pymatung Conservation Pictures". These unusual views of the many wild birds in their picturesque retreat proved very interesting.

During the business meeting reports were given by chairmen of the following committees and officers: press relations, Miss Anna Stevenson; corresponding secretary, Miss Rose Barber; treasurer, Miss Viola Wallace; historian, Mrs. Ray Robinson; registrar, Mrs. J. M. Gardner; approved schools, Miss Germaine Stevenson; flag, Mrs. W. R. Campbell and Ellis Island, Mrs. Dale Mullen.

Mrs. Jay Reed, who was a delegate to the 52nd Continental Congress, gave a most interesting account of the outstanding events of the sessions held in Washington, D. C.

The following members were elected to attend the State Conference to be held in Pittsburgh—October 20, 21, 22. Delegates: Mrs. H. E. Golder, Mrs. Mary L. Mullen, Mrs. Ray Robinson, Miss Anna Stevenson, Miss Marjorie McAnis, Miss Alma Locke, Mrs. W. W. Campbell, Mrs. W. W. Wallace, Mrs. J. A. McGrath and Mrs. James Moorhead.

Alternates: Mrs. Jay Reed, Mrs. Lawrence Byers, Mrs. Irvine Balph, Miss Katherine Foulke, Miss Sara Wallace, Miss Gevion Stevenson, Mrs. Wm. J. Caldwell, Mrs. Fred Clemens, Mrs. Marvin Dinsmore, Mrs. Frank Moorehead, Mrs. W. H. Humphrey, Miss Maude Mitchell, Mrs. Jacob Rentz, Mrs. Clarence Fischer, Mrs. W. H. Luikart, Mrs. Earle Cass, Miss Viola Wallace, Mrs. Fred Donaldson and Mrs. W. G. Eckles.

Refreshments were served from a tea-table decorated with spring flowers.

Hostesses were: Mrs. W. H. Luikart, Mrs. Jacob F. Rentz, Mrs. F. G. Simonon, Mrs. C. A. Brown, Mrs. J. H. Filby, Mrs. Lawrence Byers, Mrs. Harry Gormley, Mrs. W. W. Wallace, Mrs. W. R. Campbell, Mrs. Clarence Fischer, Mrs. Frank Moorehead.

Past Noble Grands

Past Noble Grands of Rachel Rebekah lodge No. 40 met Friday evening in the home of Mrs. Kate Withers, Walmo, at which time Mrs. Lillian Sumner acted as co-hostess.

Following a brief business session games were enjoyed, with prizes going to Mrs. Sara McCormick, Mrs. Lulu Schetrom, Mrs. Margaret Brooks and Mrs. Jennie Thompson.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses, assisted by Miss Helen Sumner, who was a special guest.

The next meeting will be June 3 in the home of Mrs. Jane Smith, 725 Chestnut street, with Mrs. Mae Earls as co-hostess.

Protected Home Circle
Officers and members met in the I.O.O.F. hall with Mrs. Ann Hofer presiding. Final plans were made of the Memorial to be held May 22, 7:30 p.m. in the First Congregational church, Rev. T. Jones.

Social time followed with awards going to Mrs. Helen Hall, Mrs. Margaret Buxton, Mrs. Pinch and Mrs. Grace Hooveu. Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. F. V. Radford, Mr. and Mrs. William Pinch of Sharon.

Next regular meeting, May 19, at 6:30 with a tureen dinner in honor of F. V. Radford, district supervisor, with Mrs. Helen Hall and committee in charge.

Ladies of G.A.R.

Ladies of the G.A.R. will hold a regular meeting Tuesday, May 17, in Malta Hall at 2 o'clock instead of Tuesday, May 10. Plans will be completed at this time for the water service to be held, Sunday, May 29, and for flag day, June 12.

HELEN BOCKIUS FETED AT SHOWER

Mrs. Frank Middleton of 1 W. Leasure avenue entertained a group of friends in her home at a shower in honor of Miss Helen Bockius, bride-elect.

The evening was spent in playing games, and pictures were taken of the group throughout the evening. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Grace Boyd, Mrs. Lucy Mitola, Miss Margaret Calabria and Miss Ann Monico.

The honoree was then showered with an array of lovely gifts of miscellaneous nature.

Miss Bockius, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Bockius of R. D. 1, East New Castle, will become the bride of Joseph Jancristoforo, son of Camillo Jancristoforo of 430 1/2 S. Mill street, at an open church wedding to be held in the First Presbyterian church June 25.

LOMBARDI-MESHOT*SPRING WEDDING

Attendees in spring green and daffodil bouquets, carrying matching colonial bouquets of baby mums and tea roses made up the bridal party for the marriage of Miss Rose N. Lombardi and Robert H. Meshot which took place Saturday morning, April 30, at 9 o'clock in St. Anthony's church, Bessemer. The Rev. William Fraxley officiated at the double ring ceremony before the altar embanked with bridal white flowers. Frank Galletta, accompanied by Mrs. Anne Polis Johngrass at the organ, was the soloist during the nuptial mass.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a white satin gown made entrain with a fingertip veil held in place with a jewel-studded crown. She carried an arrangement of orchids and gardepas on a white prayer book.

Miss Antonette Galletta, the maid of honor, was in yellow taffeta with matching headpiece while the bridesmaids, Miss Annette Lombardi, cousin of the bride; Miss Eleanor Farina, aunt of the bride; Misses Irene Nevo, Olga Lorella and Carmela Galletta were in green with matching headpieces.

Charles R. Meshot was his brother's best man. Ushers were Leonard Lombardi, brother of the bride, Anthony Perry, Daniel Williams, Anthony Choppa and Philip Rosile of Hubbard, O.

A dinner and reception for friends and relatives was held at the Croatian hall in Bessemer.

Upon their return from a cruise on the Great Lakes, Mr. and Mrs. Meshot will reside in Bessemer with the bride's parents. The bride, a graduate of Bessemer high school, was an employee of the Bess-Hi-Grill in Bessemer. Mr. Meshot is employed at the General American Transportation company in Masury. He served in the Merchant Marines for two years.

Expand Facilities For T.B. Patients

HARRISBURG, May 9.—Facilities and medical treatment for patients at Pennsylvania's three state supported sanatoria for the tuberculous have been greatly improved within the past four years, it was announced today by Secretary of Health Dr. Norris W. Vaux.

The three sanatoria are Mont Alto, South Mountain (Franklin county); Cresson, (Cambria county); and Hamburg, (Berks county). Dr. Vaux said that much needed construction for housing patients and personnel has been accomplished in all of the sanatoria. Additional funds will be made available during the next biennium for housing doctors, nurses and other key personnel, he said.

According to the secretary's report patients do not need to wait to have chest surgery done as was formerly the case. This work is now being done at Hamburg and other hospitals throughout the state.

Other advances in medical care at the state sanatoria were listed as follows:

BCG vaccine is now being given to all personnel in contact with tuberculous patients as a preventive against contracting the disease.

Streptomycin, the so called "wonder drug," is given to all patients in the sanatoria. Dr. Vaux emphasized, however, that streptomycin is only an aid to rest, good nursing and surgery.

Farmers Concentrate On Poultry, Milk

HARRISBURG, May 9.—Comparison of agricultural reports for 1920 and 1945 reveal significant changes in Pennsylvania agricultural practices and patterns over a period of 25 years, the State Planning board of the Department of Commerce announced today.

Increasing concentration on poultry and dairy products increased yields per acre, and a far more efficient use of the state's agricultural land is observed.

The number of farms has decreased about 14 per cent, from 20,143 to 17,761, and the average size has decreased by slightly less than one acre per farm.

Mechanization of farms has been rapid during the 25 years, in compensation for the loss of manure, caused by the decrease in horses and mules, the use of commercial fertilizer has increased 39 per cent.

The wooden statues of Gog and Magog are to be seen in the western side of the Guildhall, London, England, meeting place of the city council, and there are many interesting and historical monuments in the hall.

STATEHOOD FOR WESTERN GERMANY IS MOVING CLOSER

a mere formality—after eight months of intense work by the constituent assembly.

An interim government of 18 delegates—no Communists are included—will operate until general elections are held. The new, democratically-elected government is expected to take office on July 15. Coincidentally, this, civilian commissioners are slated to replace the military governors, with occupation troops and officers acting only as law-enforcing agencies.

The west German state will comprise 4,000,000 people, and will include the rich industrial Ruhr—under six power control, and much sought after by the Soviets—and the rich farm-lands of Bavaria.

May Announce Capital

Choice of a capital may be announced tomorrow, with both Bonn and Frankfurt in the running.

An important element in the constitution is that it leaves the door open for eventual unification with eastern, Soviet-occupied Germany. One section reads:

"The entire German people is called upon to accomplish, by free self-determination, the unity and freedom of Germany."

Other key sections of the constitution include:

1—The banning of aggressive war or preparations for aggressive war.

2—Creation of a central federal authority, but retention of many powers by the 11 states.

3—A bill of rights providing freedom of the press, radio and motion pictures, with no censorship.

4—Reliance by Germany on international collective security for protection.

were held over the weekend, in which British and Americans, armed with riding crops and lead pipes, patrolled the halls and entrances to their homes.

The garrison said that communist activities were "rampant" in eastern Chekiang province, with red troops moving in a southeasterly direction, toward Lanchow.

SUITABLE STAND OF CORN

Half-pound ears of corn give the greatest yield per acre, but if the crop is hand-picked fewer and larger ears may be preferred. In a dry season a too-tick stand may fail to ear.

Averaging the ear weight of last year's crop may indicate whether the stand was about right, bearing in mind that, in general, last season was not dry.

If a field can be expected to produce 50 bushels of shelled corn, 7,000 stalks (1 every 20 inches in 42-inch rows) per acre is a good stand. But land good enough for 75 bushels should have 10,000 to 11,000 stalks (1 every 14 inches). On 100-bushel land, 14,000 stalks per acre, or one every 10 to 11 inches may not be too thick in a normal season. With 38-inch rows the stalks should be about two inches farther apart in the row.

Seed should be of good, strong germination, and the right planter plates used for the grade of seed. Most hybrid seed firms specify the proper plate for each make of planter. Planters should be checked in advance on the barn floor or hard road for proper spacing, or grain drill is not intended for planting corn and seldom gives good spacing or proper depth.

The corn seedbed should be plowed early and harrowed often enough to settle it and kill weed seedlings. It should not be pulverized too finely, especially heavy soils which tend to run together and crust. Corn may be planted deeper on light or dry soils than heavy or wet land, but over three inches is likely to reduce the stand and yield, and less than two inches increases danger of damage by birds and from vigorous and continued use of harrow or weeder until the corn is six inches high.

Wait until the weather is warm. Planting too early often means a poor stand, a slow start, and a harder fight to keep weeds down. Commercial corn repellent used according to manufacturers' directions may be helpful, but home-made remedies may be dangerous.

If the fertilizer goes in with the seed, 200 pounds per acre is all that is safe, especially with high nitrogen and potash mixtures. If applied along the side of the row the rate may be increased to 300 to 400 pounds.

CORN CLUB AGAIN OPEN TO FARMERS

The Pennsylvania Corn Club, which operated successfully last year, will function again this year, and again will be open to farmers in Lawrence County and throughout the state.

As last year, the Club is sponsored by the Pennsylvania Crop Improvement Association, with the Agricultural Extension Service co-operating. Its objective is to stimulate interest in and use of, better corn-growing practices. Recognition will be given to farmers producing sound corn at not less than 75 bushels per acre.

Production by Club members in 1948 ranged up to 174.5 bushels of shelled corn per acre.

The club also will serve to demonstrate proper seedbed and rootbed preparation, the use of an adapted hybrid or variety, the intelligent use of sods, manure and commercial fertilizer, adequate plant population, and efficient cultivation or weed control.

Recognition will be given to all who qualify by the Pennsylvania Crop Improvement Association during the Pennsylvania Farm Show at Harrisburg next January.

All contestants must register, either in person or by mailing a registration blank with their county agent not later than August 1. Blanks may be obtained from the Lawrence County Agricultural Extension Association 206 Post Office Building, New Castle, Pa.

Fields entered must contain not less than 5 acres of one hybrid or variety at one location on the farm. If corn is grown in contour strips, three strips may be entered, provided there are two intervening strips of a close-growing crop. Corn acreage in contour strips must total not less than 5 acres.

Methods of determining yields, and other details in the contest are fully explained in information accompanying the registration blanks.

DATE IS SET FOR INAUGURATION OF DR. WILL W. ORR

will be Home Coming Day, with the Home Coming football game in the afternoon.

To Start Housing Projects

It was decided to start construction work on a 10-unit faculty apartment house just off Beechwood road, near the Hillside Dormitory, in back of the present row of pre-fabricated houses. This housing unit is badly needed.

It was also decided to break ground for the president's manse this summer, so that the two structures can be completed yet this year, if possible.

It was announced that the address to be given by B. F. Fairless president of United States Steel Corporation, on June 4, will be broadcast over the radio.

After the meeting of the board, communion services were held in the college chapel, when the sermon was given by Dr. Orr. It is announced that Dr. Orr will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Literature at Carroll College in Wisconsin on May 23.

Associated Artists Meet Friday Night

Registrations Made On Success Of First Public Show Held
Last Month

Associated Artists of New Castle met in their club room on Friday evening.

Final reports on their first public show, April-28-29, were presented and discussed. Miss Mickey Crawford was commended for winning the popular prize for her painting "Early Hours in Sepia." Elmer Barnes placed second with his pastel painting, "Harvey," a skillfully handled Negro portrait head.

Approximately 200 people climbed the long flight of stairs to the studio to view the show and came away impressed and pleased. Registrations showed visitors from Beaver Falls and Youngstown, as well as many of the surrounding local towns.

The president, Otto Pearsall, announced that the regular business meetings of the club would convene at 9 p. m. during the summer months. He also introduced the club's newest member, Mrs. Layte Arrington. Her charming portrait of a small girl amazed the club with its skill because it was her first. Other paintings shown at the criticism session were submitted by Alexander, Crawford, Allison, Barnes, Badger, Shenkan, M. Campbell and R. Fletcher.

Ernest Kuhlman presented the club with an original water color done by his wife, Arberry, to be placed in the club lounge as a memorial to his wife, who died March 13. Mrs. Kuhlman has had two oil paintings accepted posthumously for the widely acclaimed May show at the Cleveland Art Museum. They will be on view from May 4 to June 12. An article in the Cleveland News about the May show told of the Arberry Kuhlman award being presented by the Associated Artists of New Castle to the Spring Salon Show at the Butler Art Gallery in Youngstown.

The Associated Artists have been invited to a special preview of the Spring Salon at the Butler Art Institute in Youngstown on May 13 at 8:30, at which time the prize awards will be presented. Members are to meet there or call Bill Temple if they wish to arrange for transportation.

The cleanup committee for the next meeting is Harry Helmick and June Chaffee; food committee, Ernie Kuhlman and Mickey Crawford.

The meeting adjourned after a delicious buffet lunch served by Mary Campbell.

Madonna Church Crowning Is Held

Rev. Fr. Francis Kuczyński, Sodality Director, Delivers Sermon

Annual Mother's Day ceremonies at Madonna church were held on Sunday and the church sodalists honored mothers of the parish, as well as the Blessed Virgin Mary.

Festivities began with an 8 o'clock mass, at which time sodalists and their mothers received holy communion. Rev. Fr. Edward Pikulik, pastor of the church, delivered the sermon.

At 2:30 p. m. sodalists, attired in gowns of pastel shades, led by the May queen and her attendants, took part in a procession, where in solemn splendor, she crowned the Blessed Virgin as queen of all.

Little Mary Ann Wojtowicz was the May queen and her attendants: Sandra Hritz, Leona Watroski, Anna Boron, Loretta Temenski, Anna Mrozek, Francis Monstwil, Dorothy Mrozek, Darlene Barrett, Patricia Akstulewicz and Bernice Toaso.

The litany was recited to the Blessed Virgin Mary. Rev. Fr. Francis Kuczyński, spiritual director of the sodalists, delivered the sermon. The crowning of the statue took place, reception of new candidates and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament closed the ceremonies with Rev. Fr. Edward Pikulik, pastor, as celebrant.

A reception followed for all mothers in the parish church hall, including an entertaining program presented by the sodalists. Walter Tomon and his musicians provided the music.

BEAVER TWP.

At the last meeting of Big Beaver grange the members enjoyed a concert by "The Melodiers," a group of vocalists from Beaver Falls and College Hill. At the next meeting, May 9, the lecture will consist of a presentation of moving pictures by Howard Humphrey of New Castle. Mr. Humphrey's pictures were taken on a recent trip to Yellowstone Park and other places of interest in the west. For the remainder of the spring and summer months Big Beaver grange will meet at 8:30 Daylight Saving Time.

Members of the Big Beaver grange Ladies club are planning to make a trip to Carrollton, O., May 17, the day of their next regular meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. George McAnlis and granddaughter, Phyllis Jean McAnlis, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hoffmaster and son, Albert, of North Beaver, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence G. Moore and son, George, of Beaver, Pa., were Saturday evening dinner guests of the former's son, Sleath McAnlis, and family of Barberton, O.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel E. Craig of North Beaver, accompanied by the former's sister and husband of Sharon, are at present on a motor trip to California.

Mrs. Josie Greer was a recent houseguest of Mrs. Eva McHattie and family, also visited other friends in the community. She is visiting with her son, Lawrence Greer and family of New Brighton this week.

Mrs. Cora Pearl of Pittsburgh has been visiting several days with Mrs. Jennie Davenport of near Wampum.

tion were also invited to be present. The Hallie Shannon Missionary society members will buy their own material to make crib quilts, 36 inches by 54 inches, to be sent to the Jane Cook hospital, Frenchburg, Ky.

WASHINGTON—First veterans hospital library on record in the U. S. was established just after the Civil War in the Soldiers Home at Togus, Maine.

Y.W.C.A. INGATHERING GROUP WILL HAVE MEETING WEDNESDAY

Workers for the Spring Ingathering of the YWCA will hold a final meeting on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock. The ingathering was conducted during the month of March.

This will be an opportunity for the workers to report on contacts made during the month of April.

The meeting will not be a luncheon meeting. Mrs. C. M. England, chairman of the Membership committee, asks that all church chairmen please be responsible for having their workers do the follow-up work on cards they still have.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

The signing of a 10-nation state treaty establishing a Council of Europe added new armor to the world bulwark against Communist expansion today but provoked one inevitable question:

How are all the varied international commitments entered into since the East-West split to be integrated?

And on the heels of this query came another: Will the presumed new era of four-power collaboration spring from the end of the Berlin blockade serve to invalidate any of the agreements that have been reached with such painstaking care?

Nations Alignment
At the present time, the alignment of nations in the world, excluding Soviet Russia and her bloc of satellites, stands this way:

1. The Marshall Plan countries, totaling 17. These have priority on direct Marshall aid from the taxpayers of the United States.

2. The North Atlantic Defense Pact signatories. Alphabetically they are Belgium, Canada, Denmark, France, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Norway, Portugal, the United Kingdom and the United States.

3. The Council of Europe, consisting of Belgium, Denmark, France, Ireland, Italy, Luxembourg, the Netherlands, Norway, Sweden and the United Kingdom.

In close alliance with these are the 58-member United Nations Organization, the kernel of the whole set-up whose charter Moscow firmly insists is being violated by other formations.

Matter For Dispute
This is the matter for a dispute that perhaps never will be settled simply because the Russians justify their own means of "self-protection" while denying the same right to the west.

Any attempt to define and describe the functions and intentions of the various international organizations is certain to disclose a certain amount of duplication and overlapping.

By generally speaking, the western groupings can be set forth as follows:
The Marshall Plan set-up is designed exclusively for European economic and financial recovery as definite contribution to the peace of the world. It is predicated upon the theory that poverty breeds wars and that by "pump-priming" American dollars can encourage the nations of Europe to help themselves and aid one another in their comeback.

Military Undertaking
The North Atlantic Defense Pact is a military undertaking pure and simple. The signatories are bound to build up their defense establishments to the fullest extent.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

No mere man will be able to explain this, but I am sure every woman knows exactly what I mean. You will notice it in restaurants and hotels. You will see it in stores, in resorts or in your own or a friend's home when a party is going on.

Let us say there are several women present.
They are all well-dressed, well-mannered, fair-looking.

One woman will stand out among the crowd.
She is not prettier than the rest. She isn't wearing costlier clothes.

Her husband is no more prosperous than any of the others, or, if she is single, her folks aren't any particular ones.

But somehow she attracts attention.
Men flock around her. The other women take an instinctive dislike to her, but admit that this woman has—PERSONALITY.

What is personality?
It is one of the most indefinable characteristics in the human make-up.

But when it is there you sense it just as you sense spring when it is in the air.

There is another word for personality, although you may call it one of personality's ingredients.
That word is POISE.

Poise, in the dictionary, is defined as balance. It is also defined as equilibrium, stability. A third definition is "the bearing of the body or head; carriage."

All these make up poise, and without poise there can be no personality, as the word is used in its best sense.

I have seen the same thing in men.
Such a man comes into a room, and suddenly that room has life, radiance, color.

Whatever it is that makes up personality, it is contagious. It glows and spreads and shines into the hearts and minds of everyone within its reach.

Can personality be acquired? I don't know, but I doubt it. Personality, I think, comes with birth, just like the eyes, the nose, the ears.

Can inherent personality be developed? Definitely.
Background, environment, example are the bases of personality.
Education, culture, security develop it.

Real personality is never phony. Sham and personality don't go together. Fear is a killer of personality. Character is its best nourishment.

Excuse me. I have to go down stairs.
Somebody is at the door, raising Cain.
He is scratching and yelping. And he is going to get what he is after, a succulent steak bone.

It's Sandy, our next door neighbor's terrier.
He, too, has personality.

tent of their ability, receiving from Canada and the United States the material resources to help them do so.

The Council of Europe is a consultative and legislative body. Its constitution provides for two-way functioning. There will be a secret deliberative commission and another that will meet in public.

The council is designed to become a "parliament of Europe" in which all 10 member nations will be on an equal basis although deputations will vary in size in (Continued on Page Eight)

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

ENJOY THE OUTDOORS WITH CHILD

Until the chill of next fall takes its toll of the flowers and plants and trees and lowly creatures and causes other living things to migrate or hide from the cold, we and our children will live in a marvelous world. How many of the flowers and plants and birds and myriad other living things will we enjoy? If they could talk, how many of them could we address by name?

You and I and our children have some close personal friends. We know their names and their names have rich meaning to us. But when we meet new persons and then can't recall their names when we meet them again or wish to talk to them only a few minutes later, we have an unhappy feeling. We may even avoid them, ashamed we for got their names. We do know they are people we have met at a certain time, or people of certain interest and so on.

Trees and Plants
This summer, this week, most of us will mingle among trees and plants and flowers and birds and all sorts of dumb creatures; see them, hear them, or know of them in some other way. Except for a few pets or other domestic animals, practically none of them have personal names like Genevieve or Mr. Snow. Of these growing things or creatures we may know that they are plants or animals, trees or flowers, flying, walking or creeping things. But we may not even know them as maple, ash or oak; hyacinth, marigold or iris; oriole, bluejay or wren; cricket, ant or wasp; earthworm, caterpillar or snail.

On a farm we may not know such group names of many trees, birds or lowly creatures we have seen hundreds of times. Nor may we know much about the habits and ways of growth of these plants and animals. Of course, the more we know of such the more we are disposed to know of their names, and the more we know the more we tend to grow interested in their traits.

But since we parents know so little about the plant life and moving creatures all about us, we have little knowledge of this sort to pass on to our children. And when all our children show interest in all these treasures, we stimulate interest in this world of Nature in these children. Even so, we parents still might learn more about the great world of growing things and moving creatures all around us, with our children and even from them. When we do, see how we widen our companionship with these children.

The Toddler
Did you ever see a youngster just beginning to toddle enraptured at watching ants rush about on the lawn or by the sidewalk, or an earthworm or caterpillar crawling? He may have brought to you one of these lowly creatures, holding it tenderly in his little hand. I hope you didn't make an ugly face and noise then and tell him to "throw down the thing" or that it would bite him.

Perhaps you are the wonderful parent who not only shares enjoyment at observing bugs and worms and snakes and toads and birds and flowers—all Nature—with the child, one, 10 or 15. Perhaps you go walking with your child, looking for whatever interesting things you might enjoy with him. More wonderful when the whole family go strolling together through the woods and fields and by the streams. A caution to my fellow parents: When you go hiking with your children teach them by precept and example to have great respect for the property of other children. (My bulletin, "Teaching Child Care of Property," may be had in a stamped envelope by writing me at 235 East 45th Street New York City.) More on this tomorrow.

Nothing Stirs Early
Nothing stirs until late morning except the street cars, and they go about the streets yawning and blinking their eyes. Even the pocketbooks don't leave their trundle beds until near noon.

When the Derby visitors do start getting about it is a more pathetic sight than when they are not getting about. They look as if an army of cats had dragged them in. Most of them seem to have more blood in their eyes than they do in their veins, and it tears at one's heart to watch these beaten down revellers trying to get their hotel bills straightened out, struggling with luggage, snapping and snarling about reservations on trains, planes and buses, and generally behaving after the manner of a fighter bravely trying to get off the floor.

Talking about getting home from a track, a horse player told me a story the other day that touched me very much.
A fellow at the track was told by a tout to take 8 in the first race and save with 5. He did, and both 8 and 5 finished out of the money.

He looked up the tout and was told not to worry—just to take 11 in the second and save with 4. The second was run, and neither 11 or 4 got any of it.

This went on for five more races, with just as disastrous results.
When the eighth and last race came up, the horse player, obviously a trusting soul, went back to the tout. Still a fount of information, the tout told him to take 3 and save with 9. Off they went, and 3 and 9 were still out there running when the rest of the field was being unsaddled.

How Do I Get Home?
Busted now, the horse player went back to the tout with tears in his eyes.
"I live a hundred miles from here," he said, "and I haven't got a dime left. Tell me, how do I get home?"

The tout started walking away, then turned and gave his final bit of information of the day:
"Take Route 31 and save with Route 13."

It is a good bet that half the people left Louisville yesterday and today swore that they would never come back for another Derby, and it is an even better bet that as many of them as can be back will be back. It takes about three months to recover from Derby Week, but once you've seen a Derby, and catch the fever, you're hooked. Matt Winn's hoof and mouth disease, it's powerful hard to stay away.

Winged Victory

Day After Kentucky Derby

(By HENRY McLEMORE)

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 9. — Louisville, early of a Sunday morning after the Kentucky Derby, looks about the way Pompeii must have looked when the excavators first opened it up.

You would swear that some local Vesuvius had erupted during the night and buried the city that only a few hours before had been mad with gaiety.

The Derby takes a lot out of the horses, but not half as much as it does out of folks who come to see them run. I have been to Churchill Downs on Sunday morning and the horses are always up for breakfast, but not so the people of Louisville. Records show that there hasn't been a breakfast served in a Louisville hotel the morning after a Derby since 1918, which was Exterminator's year.

And the man who ate this one was considered so brave that the city seriously considered naming a park after him, and probably would have done so had it not been revealed that his breakfast consisted of two aspirins, sunny side up, a jug of black coffee, and an ice pack.

Nothing Stirs Early
Nothing stirs until late morning except the street cars, and they go about the streets yawning and blinking their eyes. Even the pocketbooks don't leave their trundle beds until near noon.

Activities Of Sen. Humphrey

WASHINGTON, May 9.

ONE OF the new Democratic senators who has not quite received the attention his friends think he deserves (though certainly that is not his fault) is young (38) Senator Hubert H. Humphrey, of Minnesota, who recently became the head of the left-wing organization known as "Americans for Democratic Action."

THIS is the group which last year decided that Mr. Truman, politically, as they say on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, was a "gone gosling" and that it would be suicide to nominate him. Accordingly, they concentrated on forcing him to abdicate, which is a measure of their political intelligence. In order to "save" the Democratic party, they waged a terrific campaign to draft General Eisenhower or Justice Douglas. It will be recalled that their efforts, though strongly supported by the Roosevelt brothers, James and Franklin, were not wholly successful. Nor were their predictions of Democratic disaster with Mr. Truman entirely fulfilled.

HOWEVER, they did have one convention success—and largely through Mr. Humphrey. It was he, supported by the anti-Truman elements, who forced into the platform the extreme civil-rights plank which Mr. Truman did not want and which was very widely resented, indeed. It is quite a strain to regard it as "saving" the party. Nevertheless, it gave Mr. Humphrey considerable prominence and is probably the cause of his selection as president of the ADA, which is packed with former Roosevelt New Dealers, all bursting with ambitions involving almost everything from the presidency down.

THOSE who know young Senator Humphrey say that it is entirely the character for him to regard the ADA presidency as making him the outstanding national Democratic leader, and that in the next three years a good many loud leadership noises may be expected from him. As a matter of fact, he already has begun to make some of these in the Senate, where he is noted more for his highly articulate energy than for the soundness of his views. It cannot be said that he has greatly endeared himself to his colleagues nor won the unstinted admiration of the press gallery. It is true, however, that they recognize in the young Minnesota statesman a man certain to be heard from in one way or another on almost any subject and at almost any time.

PERHAPS, the best idea of his remarkable versatility can be had from his autobiographical sketch in the most recent Congressional Directory. Leaving aside the ADA and the various Minnesota offices he has filled, the number of associations, agencies and organizations to which Senator Humphrey belongs is truly impressive. In this respect, he easily exceeds not only every other Senator but all 435 members of the House. Among them are the American Academy of Political and Social Science, the American Bible Society, the American Federation of Radio Artists, the American Municipal Association, the American Pharmaceutical Association, the First Congregational Church of Minnesota, the American Political Science Association.

ALSO, the American Public Administration Society, Boy Scouts of America (scoutmaster for five years), Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, Foreign Policy Association, Fraternal Order of Eagles, Inland Waterways Corporation, Masons, Loyal Order of Moose, Minneapolis Junior Chamber of Commerce, Minnesota Welfare Conference, Committee on the Marshall Plan, National Conference of Christians and Jews, National Conference for Prevention and Control of Juvenile Delinquency, National Conference for Permanent FEPC, National Municipal League, National Public Housing Conference, Optimists, Sons of Norway, Oslo Lodge, United Nations Committee, Minnesota Chapter, Young Men's Christian Association, Phi Beta Kappa and Delta Sigma Rho.

IT may be that since January 1 Senator Humphrey has acquired a few more affiliations, but these are those he himself listed at that time. Certainly, they testify to the extraordinary variety of his activities and his direct participation in numerous fields of human endeavor. Clearly, he has not missed many. If he should speak for all these organizations he would be a remarkable spokesman, indeed. It would be a considerable achievement for any one man to absorb all their ideas and reconcile all their interests. It would keep him busy to stay abreast of their development and the mere raising of his voice in their behalf seems like a full-time job. Yet, raising his voice is one of the easiest things Senator Humphrey does.

NOT long ago Senator Humphrey wired young Franklin Roosevelt, Jr., who, unable to get the regular Democratic nomination for Congress to succeed the late Sol Bloom of New York, is running as an independent backed by the "Liberal party." The election is to be held in about two weeks. "Hurry up," characteristically wired Mr. Humphrey, "we need you!" Well, whatever Senator Humphrey needs young Roosevelt for, it isn't to help him raise his voice. He can do that without assistance from any quarter and does.

JOBS UPON A TIME

In the city which he loved "the memory of him is green," wrote his biographer, "James J. Walker."

Walker is a legend now, and when you ride in the taxicabs and on the streets of New York, if you ask who best typified the heart of the greatest city in the western world, you are bound to hear his name.

That is a clue to this man's identity. He was born in Greenwich Village, New York City, March 11, 1881. He was educated at the College of St. Francis Xavier and New York Law school. He was admitted to the bar in 1912 and practiced in New York City. He was a member of the state senate, and twice mayor of the city. His regime was investigated, but before any decision was reached he resigned the office and went abroad. He was twice married and divorced, his second wife being a prominent Broadway actress. He died Nov. 18, 1946.

Born in Wheaton, Ill., June 13, 1904, Harold "Red" Grange early in his scholastic career gave evidence of the great football player he was to be. He enrolled at the University of Illinois, and from his sophomore year was a holy terror to other Big Ten gridiron teams. His feats were sensational. In 1924, against Michigan, he scored four touchdowns in the first few minutes of play. In professional football he had a long and illustrious career with the Chicago Bears. At one time he was associated with C. C. (Cash and Carry) Pyle in the ill-fated so-called "Bunion Derby." Later, he has been a radio and television sports commentator.

Most Important
However, the most important, far-reaching and causing the employment of the great number of hangers-on was the Office of Price Administration—the big price fixing and rationing act. Now the New Dealers in the Eighty-first Congress are trying to apply the same New Deal principles to what they call the correction of the work of the Eightieth Congress.

I will try here to say something about housing. There were practically no residential houses built during World War II. Between World War I and World War II, wages affecting building were quite reasonable. There was a great depression affecting all builders—

THREE BIG PROBLEMS

There are several big problems which the Congress of the United States is called upon to assist in solving.

First of all, is the income tax; next, is the housing problem; next, is Trade Unionism. There are other problems confronting the law makers, but I believe those are the three big problems which are a little more important than the rest of them. The New Dealers in Congress started out to settle some of them with the establishment of great bureaus. They first passed the Wagner Act which gave the big bosses of Labor Unions a stranglehold on production. It was modified by the passage of the Taft-Hartley Act by the Eightieth Congress.

Two Plead Guilty To Morals Charge

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., May 9.—(INS)—A nationally-known psychiatrist and an attractive Brookline nurse changed their pleas on a morals charge to guilty today and were fined.

Dr. Kenneth J. Tillotson, 50, Belmont, was fined $200 and Miss Annie Marie Salot, 30, ex-Navy nurse, formerly of Girardville, Pa., was fined $25 in Middlesex superior court.

On another, more serious charge in the indictment against them, their cases were continued until Thursday for disposition.

District Attorney George E. Thompson recommended to Judge Frank J. Murray that both be placed on probation.

Ladies Auxiliary Pledges $15,000 To Hospital Fund

Mrs. Evelyn Woods, president of the Ladies Auxiliary of New Castle hospital, signs a pledge card for $15,000, gift of the auxiliary to the $595,000 New Castle Hospital building fund campaign. The gift, to be paid over a three-year period, is the first to be announced in the campaign. Looking on are (left): Mrs. William L. Strawbridge, president of the Woman's board, and Sister Mary John, administrator of the hospital.

The Ladies Auxiliary of New Castle hospital has pledged $15,000 to the $595,000 New Castle hospital building fund campaign, it was announced today by Mrs. Evelyn Woods, president of the auxiliary, and Mrs. William L. Strawbridge, president of the Women's board.

The gift, to be paid over a three-year period, is the first subscription to be announced in the campaign, according to J. Preston Flaherty, general chairman of the fund raising appeal.

The gift will be used to establish the gift shop and snack bar which will be a part of the construction program in the expansion plan. This unit is operated by the auxiliary as a service to patients and visitors in the hospital.

Composed of 176 Women
The auxiliary is composed of 176 women and was organized in February of 1948. The Women's board was organized in December of 1947.

and members of this unit comprise the Executive committee of the auxiliary. When the auxiliary was formed, the New Castle Hospital Emergency club, which had been operating for 30 years, became a part of the auxiliary.

The auxiliary beside developing the gift shop and snack bar, plays an active part in providing the hospital with both materials and services, and includes a sewing group for the nursery and children's department and hostesses who aid in registering visitors and similar duties.

Joint Statement

In a joint statement, Mrs. Strawbridge and Mrs. Woods said:

"The auxiliary works closely with the hospital administration and we feel that it is an important part of the institution. Our members are intimate with the fine work being done by the hospital and our close association has given us a close view of the handicaps under which doctors, nurses, technicians and others are working. We know the crying need for more space and better facilities and we feel that we want to do all we can to help bring about the desperately needed expansion program."

"While we consider the amount of our pledge to the building fund a challenge to our group, we believe it is well within our power to carry through."

Thanked for Gift

Thanking the auxiliary for its generous gift, Mr. Flaherty said that "This is indeed a magnanimous gesture on the part of the auxiliary and on behalf of the board and the campaign organization I want to extend my heartfelt thanks."

"It is this kind of action that encourages all of us who are so intensely interested in seeing that the hospital is provided with the space and proper tools to carry on its great service to the community."

Officers of the auxiliary are: Mrs. Evelyn Woods, president; Mrs. Lowell Fulton, first vice president; Mrs. Paul Zaremba, second vice president; Mrs. E. H. Willmarth, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ben Ciccone, financial secretary; Mrs. Ralph Markley, treasurer, and Mrs. Joseph Windl, financial chairman.

Princeton Group Enjoys Luncheon

May fellowship luncheon was held in the Rose Point Reformed Church on May 6 with 65 persons in attendance representing the several churches of the community.

Mrs. Elder Armstrong was chairman of the committee on arrangements and following the tasty luncheon, prepared by the ladies of the church, an interesting program was presented with Mrs. Findlay Weisz in charge. Two groups of songs were offered by Miss Norma Shaffer, of Princeton Memorial church. Mrs. M. H. Hall of Portersville offered several readings.

Mrs. J. Francis Boak presented Mrs. Fred Cochran, wife of the minister of the Plain Grove Presbyterian church who delighted the guests with her interesting and challenging address on "Joseph's Family."

A short business meeting followed. The following officers were elected: President, Mrs. M. M. Martin, Rose Point Reformed; Vice President, Mrs. Nelson Stoner, Oak Grove U. P. Church; Secretary, Mrs. G. A. Boyd, Princeton Memorial; Treasurer, Mrs. E. C. Boak, Mt. Hermon Presbyterian.

The organization will direct plans for the World Day of Prayer the first Friday in Lent and the May fellowship luncheon, the first Friday in May.

HOLY NAME SOCIETY MARKS ANNIVERSARY

King, assistant of St. Mary's, was the deacon, and Rev. Fr. Francis Hugh Gallagher of St. Mary's was the sub-deacon. Rev. Fr. Patrick M. O'Neill of St. Paul's Monastery, Pittsburgh, was the official master of ceremonies.

The senior male choir, under the direction of Anthony Snyder, Holy Name executive committee, was the music director, with Mrs. Josephine Huntley presiding at the console of the organ, and sang the renowned "Miss in Honore Sanctae Joan DeArc", by Franz Greuber. Assisting were the supplied boys' soprano choir and the concert choir, whose voices blended with the chancel organ played from the sanctuary.

In keeping with the spirit of the day, the offertory hymn, the beautiful "Ave Maria" by Franz Apts was sung by a special octet of male voices, furnishing an appropriate obligato to the male tenor solo for which the hymn is noted.

Fr. Lappan Preaches
Rev. Fr. Thomas B. Lappan, diocesan director of St. Vincent De-

Paul society of Pittsburgh, delivered the sermon during the mass.

He said: "The world arises on occasion to have us appreciate and celebrate a day called Mother's Day. The Holy Name celebration and Mother's Day fit nicely together. It is fitting that we should honor the name of Jesus and the Holy Motherhood of Mary. We are to honor our human mother by our lives and not to shame them by unworthy lives."

Fr. Lappan continued, "In addition to our earthly Mother, God has given us a spiritual Mother—the Catholic Church, to which we are privileged to belong. Also, he reminded the largest crowd ever to attend a Holy Name Society Mother's Day mass, "through the Church, we receive the Sacraments of Baptism and Confirmation and become soldiers of Jesus Christ."

"God has given us our Mother Mary," Father Lappan concluded, "to be our own Mother throughout our life. No one can measure the power of the love the Mother of God has for human beings. Contemplate on your Spiritual Mother. Ask her on this day to remember you, to protect you and guide you safely to God."

March To Cathedral
Following the "Te Deum", the society marched to the Cathedral where the rally continued under the moderation of Monsignor Cousins.

Father King gave the invocation after the national anthem. The holy communion breakfast was then served by the ladies of St. Mary's parish.

the society, introduced the toast-master of the rally, Edward A. Lynch, who briefly related the history of the Holy Name society. Rev. Fr. Francis McCarter, pastor of St. Mary's church, acknowledged the assembled guests and his few words filled the men with zeal in all things which appertained to God.

Monsignor's Sermon
Bringing the call to the Holy Name men to "come back to God", Monsignor Joseph A. Cousins, Ph. D., of St. Charles Seminary, Columbus, O., urged the men to fulfill their duty to "prepare their individual soul."

"There are millions of Americans today who would not be revolted to any desecration directed to the Cross—for to them it is not the symbol of Divine Life. They have no reverence for it."

"Blasphemy prevails all around us," he pointed out. "In so-called modern literature, in the theaters, blasphemy against marriage. The spirit of the reverence has disappeared in this modern age. There is no symbolic value, just material value left."

"It is a far-cry from the dark ages, today, but still in the decline of that ancient civilization, a miracle happened—the Redemption, and human progress began in Divine abundance."

Monksignor Cousins continued: "The secret of culture of the middle ages was the interest of the individual in the Catholic Church, and the practice of Catholicism, which included a sense of brotherhood."

"But," he warned, "today we have the so-called modern age. We have made great progress—but it is the 19th century of dehumanization progress. The disease of the modern man is to hunger for an eternity which he cannot find. Everything is measured by a mechanical law. There is no sense of reverence today outside the Church."

Appeals To Holy Name Men
"What are we to do to check this present decadence?" he asked. "We must have free will and assume the responsibilities of men. Regain your sense of the Divine. We must begin to take action, and we must prepare our own souls within ourselves."

"For those who are the persecutors of Christ, lose their own power. Renew your faith in the name of Jesus," he urged in conclusion. "For it is in that name that you, in your own life and in your home town, can take the responsibility God has given you to renew the faith of the earth."

Prior to the Monsignor's address, Robert A. McKay sang Roswrig's "Ave Maria", and afterwards, Anthony Casberro offer a violin solo and Francis Morrissey a vocal selection, "That Wonderful Mother of Mine" by Hagle and Goodwin.

Dr. Whalen Speaks
Dr. Charles H. Whalen, speaking for the laymen, emphasized the spiritual happiness one feels in the knowledge that he is a member of an international society so praiseworthy as the Holy Name society.

Mr. Wadlinger thanked the men for their cooperation. Fr. King conducted the election of officers, results yet to be announced. He spoke on the installation plans in the very near future.

Fr. Lappan brought the rally to a close with benediction.

Defective Flue Cause Of Blaze

Cascade Street Home Is Threatened By Fire Sunday Afternoon

City firemen were called to the home of Thomas Stoner, of 825 Cascade street, Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, when defective chimney set fire to the attic. Damage of around $100 was done, Fire Chief H. F. Steinbrink reported.

Several other fires occurred over the weekend, none of a serious nature.

At 4:37 p. m., Sunday, a chicken coop at the home of Francis Johnson, of Fulkerson street was found afire. The loss was around $10.

At 10:45 a. m., Sunday, grass was found burning around the storage tanks of the Atlantic Refining Company on Center street, firemen being called to the scene by a still alarm.

No. 5 company was called to the home of Philip Mike, of 408 East Long avenue, at 9:25 Saturday evening for an auto fire, caused by a short in the wiring. Firemen disconnected the battery.

At 4:40 p. m., Saturday, old lumber in the yard of Mike Lian-base, of 211 South Liberty street caught fire. Firemen went to the scene in response to an alarm from Box 714.

Columbus Auxiliary Banquet Saturday

Crown Queen Mother Of 1949, Serve Chicken Dinner; Period Of Dancing

At Christopher Columbus hall, South Liberty street, members of the Columbus Auxiliary sponsored a Mother's Day banquet, on Saturday evening, with husbands as guests, and a good attendance.

A splendid chicken dinner was served, on tables decorated with flowers, and lavender and yellow colors. The group was led in the invocation by the president, Mrs. Mary Iovannella.

Feature of the evening, was the crowning of Mrs. Tony Conti, by Mrs. Mary Munno, chairlady of arrangements, as Queen Mother of 1949. The queen received a lovely bouquet of flowers from the president, on behalf of the auxiliary; a splendid bouquet by Mr. and Mrs. Guy Masone; and a lovely corsage by the queen from her daughter, Mrs. Margaret Sinibaldi. Mrs. Conti thanked all for honor bestowed on her.

The president called on Louis Ezzo, officer of Columbus society, who acted as toastmaster in an efficient manner. He brought greetings from the society, and thanked the auxiliary for their splendid cooperation, and condition of their treasury. He congratulated all the mothers of the auxiliary.

Chairlady Mrs. Munno brought greetings, and thanked all the committee who assisted her to make the occasion a success. Short addresses were made by the president, Mrs. Iovannella; Tony Conti, A. J. Rees, John Munno, Guy Marchionda, a member for 35 years, Guy Masone, society president, and one of the founders, Mrs. Louise Cunti, and oldest mother, Mrs. Sam Rainey, received nice gifts. Special guest at the event was Bumer Simpson of Uniontown, brother of Mrs. Tony Conti.

Committee was Mrs. Mary Munno, chairlady, Mrs. Angeline Garafalo co-chairlady, Mrs. Elvira Ruozzo, Mrs. Jean Canale, Mrs. Louise Domenick, Mrs. Liberta Prospera, Mrs. Anna Orlando, Mrs. Jennie Velicci, Mrs. Mary Ezzo, Miss Martha Iovannella, Mrs. Angeline Mingione, Mrs. Clara Frank, Mrs. Theresa Ross, Mrs. Rose Rainey, Mrs. Jennie Piscitelli captured the door prize. A dancing period followed the dinner, to accompaniment of a local orchestra.

Opportunity Circle With Mrs. J. G. Fisher

Members of the Opportunity Circle of Mahoningtown Presbyterian church, were entertained in the home of Mrs. J. G. Fisher of West Madison avenue, during the weekend, with a good attendance. Devotional exercises were conducted by Mrs. Gertrude Marshall. The business session was in charge of Mrs. L. M. Wilkison. Mrs. W. C. Patterson led in the discussion of the topic entitled, "Building A Christian Home." Mrs. Anna Culbertson and Mrs. W. C. Patterson gave a skit, "No Place Like Home." Delicious refreshments were

Mahoning School Gets Green Pennant

Regarding the green pennant presented to Mahoning school on Friday by David McBride on behalf of Governor James H. Duff's program of safety throughout the state, Principal Fred McLure states "that the pennant flying from the school flag pole signifies 30 consecutive days in which no pupil of the school had been involved in a traffic accident". Principal McLure accepted the pennant on behalf of the school.

"If pupils of the school can go another 30 days without being in a traffic accident, a green safety button will be issued to every pupil in the school, but if at any time a pupil is involved in a traffic accident the pennant will have to come down, and all pupils surrender their buttons, until another 30 days has elapsed without any accident."

"For each 30 days free of accidents following issuing of buttons, a gold star is placed on the pennant, and Mahoning school is hoping that ere long, that stars will appear on their pennant."

"This program involves the parents of pupils. If a pupil is in a car with parents who have an accident, this will cause the school to lose its pennant."

Second Preliminary Hearing For Babich

MILWAUKEE, May 9.—(INS)—Milton Babich, 19, accused of the slaying of his wife's 16-year-old sister, Patricia Birmingham, to "seal her lips" was slated to undergo a second preliminary hearing today before Milwaukee Civil Judge Thaddeus Pruss.

The unusual action was instituted by District Attorney William J. McCauley after District Judge Harvey L. Neelen last week had "cut short a preliminary hearing and bound Babich over for trial without hearing all the evidence McCauley had to present.

The district attorney dropped the proceeding and obtained a new murder warrant. An attempt was made to hold another preliminary hearing last Friday but Defense Attorney Arthur Richter filed an affidavit of prejudice against Judge Neelen. The case then was assigned to District Judge John S. Barry who disqualifies himself because he had worked on the case as an assistant district attorney. Judge Pruss agreed to hear the case today.

Babich's bride, Kathleen, 19, an expectant mother, has indicated she will "stand by" her husband and testify in his behalf.

Mrs. FDR Wants White House To Be Left Unchanged

Woman Who Was First Lady For 12 Years Tells Attitude On Radio Interview

WASHINGTON, May 9.—(INS)—The woman who presided over domestic affairs in the White House longer than any other in history doesn't want to see the venerable executive mansion changed.

Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, who was First Lady from 1933 to 1945, expressed that attitude in a radio interview.

She was asked by Ray Henle, editor-in-chief of the program three-star-extra, to comment on the views of some persons that the mansion should be turned into a museum.

Mrs. Roosevelt admitted her feelings about the stately edifice at 1600 Pennsylvania avenue are "somewhat sentimental." She added:

"The house and the site were chosen by George Washington, and the whole history would be spoiled if the location and general arrangements of the house were changed."

"I realize it will cost a great deal of money to put it back as it should be, but I hope that by putting in modern structural changes, they will keep it a thing of beauty and dignity, and at the same time preserve the historical and sentimental interest that will always be attached to it."

The White House currently is closed for extensive repairs. President and Mrs. Truman are living at Blair House, diagonally across the street.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

the carpenter, the mason, the painter, the plumber, the plasterer, etc. Every trade that worked in the building of houses was affected. And notwithstanding the reasonableness of prices, there were not any houses to amount to anything built and all the trades were suffering. This condition became so serious that notwithstanding there were five million men and women employed in the armed forces—the Army, the Navy, the Marines and the Air Force, there were not enough houses to supply the men and women who had to stay at home. And when World War II was over, came the deluge. And now, the proposition is—how will we house the warriors returned and returning?

What houses there are that can be used, the rents fixed by the OPA are totally inadequate to take care of the situation. They hit the landlord too hard and the problem is entirely unsettled. The two questions connected with the housing question are very hard to settle:

Tenants should be protected from rapacity on the part of landlords. Landlords should be allowed a fair return on their investments, sufficient to enable them to keep the property in repair and pay the taxes.

Increase House Supply

Now the only thing that will ever bring rents down is an increase in the supply of houses. So long as there are a dozen potential tenants for every house, rents are bound to remain high. If we get to the point where the proportion is reduced to two potential tenants for each house, rents will go down. And if we reach the point where there are two houses for each potential tenant, they will take a real drop.

On the other side are those who insist that if the government will refrain from policies which preclude the property owner from building houses for lack of any reasonable return on the investment, private construction will provide the desperately needed houses.

There are two logical objections to throwing the housing problem into the lap of the government.

One is that government never has been known to do any job as efficiently or cheaply as private enterprise.

The other is that there is no semblance in equity for the policy of levying extra taxes on a householder who is striving to pay for his own home, and meet his local taxes, in order that the householder may contribute to free housing for someone else.

The thing the country needs is houses.

The inducement for building houses is a decent profit on the investment.

Why not get down to first principles, instead of carrying on competition in demagoguery?

accordance with the populations concerned.

But all are to have the same voice in proposals such as elimination of trade and tariff barriers, equalization of currency and uniformity in tactics of commercial competition.

From this council it is hoped by the sponsors that there eventually may emerge a federated Europe, a multilingual counterpart of the United States, which would have a vast, over-all senate and house of representatives consisting of parliamentary members from all countries which belong.

From this point on, speculation rises to Utopian heights—a common language, a common currency, a burial forever of the traditional jealousies that have bred European wars for centuries.

PROTECT YOUR EYES

"I am thirty years old and am fairly well preserved for my age. Recently, however, I have noticed tiny squint lines appearing around my eyes and wonder if you can tell me how to avoid getting others and how to arrest the ones I have."

Answer: To begin with: Do not expose your eyes to the summer sun. Wear good sun glasses, preferably those prescribed by your oculist.

Every night before going to bed, rub on your upper and lower lids a good, special eye cream—something recommended by your favorite beautician. Also apply this generously under your sun glasses before sitting out for your sun bath.

To protect your glasses from smudging rub it in well before putting them on. After you have finished your sunning or a long spell of reading, bathe your eyes with a prepared eyewash or a mild solution of boric acid and then lie down for about fifteen minutes with a pad soaked in a properly diluted astringent or diluted witch hazel placed over each eye lid. This will relieve eye strain and refresh your eyes and make them brighter.

If you use mascara, apply it sparingly and carefully. After you have applied, take a dry brush and go over the lashes to separate them while they are still wet.

Eye shadow, if used at all, should be put on with extreme caution. Just a faint touch should be applied to the center of each lid and then sweep it upward toward the outer part of the lid. Shadow should never be obvious. Its purpose is to give the eyes a glowing effect by putting a suggestion of color on their lids.

Question: Where should the date be placed on a letter?

Answer: In a business letter, the date should be placed in the upper right-hand corner. In a social letter, it may be placed at the bottom. If prefigured, it may be placed in the upper right-hand corner and the address at the end of the letter.

Declares U.S. Ships To Stay At Tsingtao Harbor For Present

TOKYO, May 9.—(INS)—The commander of the U. S. Navy in the Far East declared today the U. S. Navy will remain in Tsingtao Harbor until Communists "completely occupy" the city.

The commander, Vice Adm. Russell Berkeley, expressed surprise at Chinese Nationalists reports that the American ships have withdrawn from the North China base.

Adm. Berkeley was doubtful whether the Reds would attempt to occupy Tsingtao in the near future, explaining:

"I do not think there is any real reason for the Communists to take Tsingtao. It would be a headache because they would have to feed more than half a million refugees who have swarmed into the city during the last eight months."

Temple Sisterhood To Sponsor Donor

Mrs. C. C. Strasburger, National Leader In Sisterhoods, Is Speaker Slated

Mrs. C. C. Strasburger of Knoxville, Tenn., a leader of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods—one of the world's largest Jewish women's organizations—will be guest speaker at the annual donor dinner of the Temple Israel sisterhood Wednesday evening at 6 p. m. in the Temple Israel.

Mrs. Strasburger, second vice president of the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods, attended Agnes Scott college and Columbia University of Tennessee. She is a member of the Executive board of NFTS and a National Federation chairman on state federations as well as past vice chairman of the NFTS Committee on Programs. Mrs. Strasburger has served her local sisterhood, Beth El Temple sisterhood, Knoxville, in many capacities, including that of president. In addition she has held numerous offices in the Kentucky-Tennessee Federation of Temple sisterhoods and is its immediate past president. She is a member of the Religious Education committee of the Knoxville

Y.W.C.A., a member of the City Library board and she participates actively in numerous other Jewish and nonsectarian organizations.

Officers of the Temple Israel sisterhood include: president, Mrs. Louis Sandler; first vice president, Mrs. R. Rubenstein; second vice president, Mrs. Edward Myers; secretary, Mrs. Philip Weiner; treasurer, Mrs. J. Meyers, and program chairman, Mrs. R. S. Rubenstein.

An agency of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations (the central organization of American Liberal Judaism), the National Federation of Temple Sisterhoods, organized in 1913, engages in a broad program of service to Jewish and humanitarian causes. It contributes large sums annually for partial dormitory maintenance scholarships for students on the Cincinnati campus of the Hebrew Union College-Jewish Institute of Religion, and for religious educational work, especially youth activities of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations. The sisterhoods also built the dormitory of the college, the oldest American Jewish theological seminary.

Memorial Program Presented Sunday

Large Crowd On Hand For Outdoor Program Presented Sunday At Margaret Henry Home

Sunday's attractive weather enabled a large audience to be on hand at the Margaret L. Henry children's home, Friendship street, for the annual memorial and open house which was in charge of the local Eagles group. The program got under way at 2 o'clock on the lawn of the Home and following the festivities, the visitors were enabled to visit the Home.

Judge John G. Lamoree presented the opening address which was followed by well chosen remarks by Ellis McCracken of the Eagles. The boys and girls of the Home, fittingly gave their memorial for Miss Margaret L. Henry, late founder of the Home. Present matron and assistant of the Home, Mrs. Lydia Green and Mrs. Bertha Patterson were given a fitting tribute by Mrs. Walter Heckart, president of Eagles auxiliary.

Vocal selections were presented by Mrs. Arlis Crum with Mrs. Henry Jenkins at the piano. Rev. Thomas Jones and Charles Reed were heard in appropriate ad-resses, as were William Langan of the Henry Home board and Henry Navarra of the Eagles. The guard of honor was made up of the Eagles auxiliary drill team directed by Mrs. Henry Navarra.

On Friday, the memory of the late Marcus Feuchtwanger, former member of the Home board was honored when a dinner was given on the occasion of his eighty-seventh birthday anniversary at the Home. The dinner was furnished by the late board member's son and his family in Philadelphia.

Kills His Wife, Her Lover, Then Commits Suicide

Mother's Day Tragedy Ends In Death Of Three In Seattle
Triangle

SEATTLE, May 9.—(INS)—Near a potted geranium was a Mother's Day card which read "Loads of Love".

And nearby an attractive 28-year-old housewife, Mrs. Wilma Weidum, lay dead, along with Frank D. Howe, 38, who, Seattle police said, figured in an apartment triangle involving her husband, Otto, 30.

Authorities said Weidum killed his wife and her lover and then shot himself to death.

Writes Final Note

A tragic terse note, obviously penned under duress by the wife on a piece of cardboard while awaiting her own fate, reads in part:

"Dear Mom:
"Ott says I should write you a note and say I have been a bad girl and I should pay with my life. This is Frank's pen and Ott says to use it. Ott says we're both very sorry his had to happen... but that's life even if it is short. He says he loves Skip (the Weidum's 7-year-old son who was with her parents at Redmond, Wash.) and you and I very dearly... If Frank shows up now he will be shot."

Detectives said Weidum apparently shot Howe when he returned to the Weidum home after once being ejected. He then shot his wife and himself.

SUN SPOTS

Astronomers seem to be interested in spots on the sun. Most of us are more interested in spots on the skin.

Every summer a lot of people get burned by the sun.

They stay in the sunshine a little too long. In a few hours their skin begins to burn.

It is a good idea to protect the skin from strong sunshine.

By exposing the skin to sunshine gradually from spring into summer it is not so likely to be burned.

The skin should be tanned gradually a little at a time. Sun burn is a calamity.

Trinity Parish Council Meeting

Dinner Event At Church: Plans
Are Made For Improvements
Of Church Interior

In the Guild room of Trinity Episcopal church, the retiring members of the Parish Council, the newly elected officers and appointed members, the Vestry and members of the special building committee met for dinner at 6:30 p. m. Traditional spring colors, matching tapers, with maypole motif were used.

Regular monthly business meeting of the council followed at which time retiring President, Miss Elizabeth Emery introduced the officers for the ensuing two years: Clark D. Todd, president; Edward Olmstead, vice president; Mrs. D. M. Arnold, secretary; Mrs. Martha McNally, treasurer. Retiring with Miss Emery are Mrs. Raymond R. Toler and Ben E. Johnson.

The special building committee composed of Lloyd W. Strayer, Jr., warden, and R. M. Garland, Jr., warden, co-chairman, Hon. John C. Lamoree, Messrs. L. J. Lewis, Harlow W. Clarke, Francis S. Sowersby, William Howe, Mrs. L. A. Pearsall, Mrs. J. A. Byers, Mrs. Robert Armstrong, Jr., Mrs. D. C. Lindley, and Miss Elizabeth Reis, appointed by the rector, the Rev. Fr. Ralph E. Hovencamp following the annual meeting in January to undertake a long range program including new carpet for the church, a new side entrance at the north transept of the church, and a new organ, opened their appeal for funds. Fr. Hovencamp presented the basic outline of the appeal with further comments and suggestions by Mr. Garland, after which discussion followed.

Dinner was prepared by women of the parish with Mrs. Howard R. Kley, chairlady, and Mrs. Frank Robinson, Sr. in charge of the dining room. Past presidents of the parish council present were: Harry J. Culliford, Miss Elizabeth Reis, and Charles E. Lye.

Next meeting of the council will be held Wednesday evening, June 1, 1949.

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL

(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, May 9.—Adrian Booth, a cinema cutie who owns more curves than a roller coaster, is miffed because the only thing she gets to use her legs for is walking.

Mariene Dietrich and Betty Grable wouldn't have to worry, but Adrian still is clamoring for a chance to display her gams on the silver screen.

Nice looking underpins they are, too, although you would never know it even if you possessed X-ray eyes with 20-20 vision.

Those Period Pictures
In the last five flickers Adrian has made at Republic her legs have been swathed in enough yards of gingham and lace to camouflage a herd of elephants.

The enforced modesty is the result of the period pictures which take place in the wildest of the 1800's. A gal of that era wouldn't be caught dead with her leg showing.

"My legs aren't bad," complained Adrian. "They might not be show pieces or long-stemmed beauties, but they certainly are not deformed."

"I think they're worth showing. No moles, no bumps, no veins that gnarl. They aren't bowed or knocked. But they might just as well be for all of them that ever shows in my movies."

No Soap?

Adrian had one fleeting moment of anticipation in "The Last Bandit." The script read: Adrian takes a bath.

So what happens? So the cameras didn't begin grinding until Miss Booth was in the tub surrounded by soap bubbles up to the middle of her swanlike throat. What preceded and followed the tubbing was left entirely to the imagination of the theater audience.

In her current film, "Brimstone," Adrian's luck is equally bad. She wears buckskin pants through the opus. And when she removes the britches in one scene you'll find her all wrapped in crinoline.

"It's a sorry commendation on the state of the world," said Adrian, "when a gal has got legs and can't show 'em."

DIocese TO MEET
RIDGWAY, Pa., May 9.—(INS)—Plans were announced today for the annual Episcopal diocese of Erie convention, which will be held in Ridgway May 20-27.

Some 200 delegates from parishes and missions in the 13 counties will elect officers and select deputies to the September general church convention in San Francisco.

From the close of the Revolution until 1900, United States troops fought only alone. They joined troops of European nations first in China in this year, during the Boxer rebellion.

Bound For Texas In 1902 Automobile

PITTSBURGH, May 9.—(INS)—J. J. Ruth of York, Pa., was on his way to Texas in a 1902 Sears today after a brief stop in Pittsburgh.

It's not a new experience for Ruth since he's been all over the country in the 1902 model which then sold for $500. But his archaic vehicle drew a curious crowd when he slipped into town yesterday.

The Sears has a top cruising speed of 30 mph, chain drive, 36-inch wheels, solid tires and red wooden spokes.

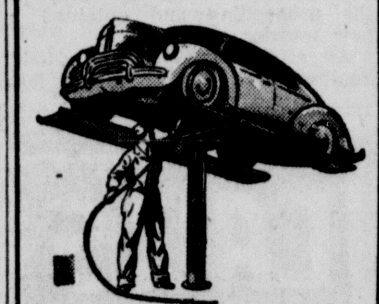

P. S. It requires cranking. There are no two snowflakes alike. They may assume any one of a number of possible forms, running into billions and billions.

Mothers Honored By Elks Sunday

Distribute Bouquets To Mothers In Hospitals At Annual Visitation

ROSES GIVEN AT ALMIRA HOME

Following their annual custom, which has been followed for the past 20 years, a committee from New Castle Lodge No. 69, B. P. O. E., visited the two city hospitals, where bouquets were given to all mothers confined in the hospitals on Mother's Day, Sunday. They also visited the Almira Home where roses were given to all the women residing there.

A total of 132 bouquets were given out at the hospitals, and 50 lovely roses were given out at the Almira Home.

The committee in charge of the visitation was composed of Past Exalted Ruler, Edward J. Ryan, who has been in charge of the event for the past 15 years; Allen I. Garvin, Exalted Ruler; Thomas E. Armstrong, Esteemed Leading Knight; and Edmund D. Connelly, Past Exalted Ruler.

Assisting the committee at the New Castle hospital, were: Sister Mary John, superintendent; Sister Lawrence Mary, and Sister M. Francis. At the Jameson Memorial hospital, the committee was assisted by Miss Betty Callahan, assistant director of nurses; while at the Almira Home, the group was accompanied by Mrs. Lola M. Harris, superintendent; and Miss Elsie Gibson, resident nurse.

Name Valedictorian, Salutatorian Today At Union Township

J. Arthur Turek, supervising principal of the Union township schools, announced today the names of the valedictorian and salutatorian of the Union high school. Edward Nevoite, son of Andrew and Jennie Nevoite of 38 Elmwood street, R. D. 2, has been named valedictorian with an average during his high school career of 93. Ed plans to enter Temple University after graduation to study electrical engineering.

Salutatorian has been announced as Velma Sloan, daughter of Howard R. Sloan, Edensburg. Velma has earned an average of 92.5 per cent during her high school career. She has not chosen a college yet.

ERWIN'S CONDITION SAID SATISFACTORY

According to the latest reports from the Harrisburg, Pa., hospital, the condition of Howard O. Erwin, local jeweler, of 820 East Washington street, who was seriously injured in an automobile accident near Harrisburg, is said to be satisfactory.

Mr. Erwin is unable to talk because of the throat operation he underwent, but is getting along fairly well.

SMALL GIRL KILLED
BRIDGEPORT, Pa., May 9. — (INS)—Peggy Coch, six, en route home from Communion was killed yesterday when she crawled under a freight train in Bridgeport, Montgomery county.

Coroner Winslow J. Rushong said the train probably started as the girl crawled over the rail. The victim was second oldest of four children. Her father is a Reading Railroad brakeman.

Mrs. Jeanette Dye To Speak At Luncheon

Ladies Of Kiwanis Luncheon Set
For Thursday, May 12,
At The Castleton

MRS. JEANETTE DYE

Ladies of the Kiwanis will hold a luncheon-meeting at The Castleton, Thursday afternoon, May 12, at 1:15 o'clock. All members of Women's Service Clubs in the community have been invited to attend the luncheon and to hear Mrs. Jeanette M. Dye, of Mercer County, Republican member of the Pennsylvania General Assembly, the speaker for the day.

Mrs. Dye has been the Republican committee woman in the borough of Sandy Lake since 1936, and is on the county Republican executive committee. She has been an officer in the county council of Republican women and is publicity chairman for the state council in the northwest region.

Jeanette M. Dye was elected to the Pennsylvania General Assembly in 1944, 1946, and again in 1948. She is the only Republican woman elected to the 1949 session. She is the first woman ever appointed to the joint state government commission and is chairman of a twelve-member committee that made a state investigation of juvenile delinquency in Pennsylvania. She also served on education, state government, welfare and public health and sanitation committees.

Mrs. Dye, housewife, Sandy Lake, Pennsylvania, is married to Dr. Ralph W. Dye, vice president of Reznor Manufacturing company, and has one daughter, Norma Jean. Prior to her marriage she was an instructress of nurses. Mrs. Dye was educated in the public schools of Wyoming. St. Johns Training School for Nurses at Cheyenne, Wyoming, and the University of Michigan.

Henry C. Pitsch Rites At Braddock

Henry C. Pitsch, Braddock, died suddenly Saturday at his home after suffering a heart attack, according to a message received by his son, Charles H. Pitsch, of this city. Mr. Pitsch was a former resident of New Castle.

Survivors are three children, Marvin Pitsch, Albany, N. Y., Frank Allison Pitsch, New Kensington, and Charles H. Pitsch, New Castle; one sister, Mrs. John Parker, Braddock; and two brothers, Frank Pitsch, Swissvale, and Oscar Pitsch, Pittsburgh.

He also leaves three step-children, Mrs. Rita Glasser, Mrs. Betty Alberts and Mrs. Phyllis Jordan, all of Braddock.

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday at 2 p.m. from the Limbacher funeral home, 24 Holland avenue, Braddock. Interment will take place in that city.

He started from Bucharest Friday morning, stopping at Prague, Czechoslovakia; Paris, La Guardia Field, New York, thence to Youngstown air field arriving at six o'clock. Relatives met him at the airport, and he was home before 8 o'clock.

Mr. Lewis came on account of the critical illness of his mother, getting here in time for Mother's Day. Mrs. Lewis is a little improved, but still in the oxygen tent at New Castle hospital.

J. Henry Kline Dies In Florida

Word was received here today of the death of J. Henry Kline, well known local lumber dealer. Mr. Kline died Sunday night in his home in Winter Haven, Fla.

No information concerning funeral arrangements had been received at noon but will probably be received in time for publication in Tuesday's News.

ROBBED OF $75

Paul Fontana, 913 South Jefferson street, went into a P.R.R. West Side, washroom at 9 a. m. Sunday.

He had hung his jacket on the outside of the door.

A boy, about 15, seized it fled. The jacket contained $75.

A good description of the boy, who fled up the P.R.R. tracks toward Grant street, was given by Fontana.

Police are searching for the boy.

P.E.O. Sisterhood Officers Are Elected

Named At Concluding Session Of State Convention Here On Saturday Afternoon

At the closing session, Saturday afternoon of the 11th annual two-day convention of the Pennsylvania State Chapter P. E. O. Sisterhood, election of officers was transacted.

President, Elizabeth Titzel, Chapter J., Pittsburgh, Pa.; first vice-president, Clara Diller, N. of Philadelphia; second vice-president, Irene Moore, K., Lancaster, Pa.; organizer, Lena Bridge, E. of Philadelphia; recording secretary, Jean Durant, O., Philadelphia; corresponding secretary, Beatrice Holdridge, Q., Erie, Pa.; and treasurer, Helen Ryman, G., of Pittsburgh, Pa.

A resolution was passed to invite the P. E. O. supreme convention to meet in Philadelphia, in 1951. Brief reports were given by delegates. Many projects of worthwhile importance were announced, and the state treasurer reported a gift received from Mrs. Florence Wright, former state organizer for New York, and now of Texas, to equip the Winona Reeves hall. This building is a part of Cottey Junior College, owned and operated by P. E. O., in Nevada, Mo.

Mrs. Winona E. Reeves, banquet speaker, and "grand lady" of PEO spoke about the college and its new president, Dr. Dow. Its educational facilities amount to three million dollars, she said.

Chapters B and C presented, in skit form, an invitation to the state convention in Pittsburgh next year. Rhymed to the tune of "Oh Susanna", the invitation was sung by a group in pioneer costumes.

Resolutions of appreciation were presented to entertain Chapters A and Q to the First Presbyterian church for use of the Sunday school room, and for the sanctuary for the memorial service and to Garth Edmundson for his contribution of music which added greatly to the memorial service.

Mrs. Vincent Kessey of Drexel Hill presided during the sessions, and she is the state president of PEO; Mrs. Olivia Griffiths is the local chapter's president, who also addressed the convention.

After the installation of officers, the 11th annual convention adjourned.

HURT IN ACCIDENT

Andrew George, East Lutton street, received attention in the New Castle hospital as the result of his car striking a telephone pole Saturday night, according to a report at city police headquarters.

The hamburger was introduced into the United States from Hamburg, Germany, in 1894, but it took an American to convert it into a cheeseburger, chickenburger and a rabbitburger and several other kinds of burgers, which only prove that America is a melting pot.—Kansas.

Louisville Player Injured By Blast, May Lose His Leg

Water Heater Blast Seriously Injures Charles Koney, Second Baseman

CHICAGO, May 9.—(INS)—Surgeons at Chicago's South Shore hospital fought today to save the right leg of Charles Koney, 22-year-old second baseman for the American Association's Louisville Colonels, who was seriously injured in a water heater explosion.

Koney's leg was shattered in the blast at his parents' home. Hospital officials said he also suffered a fracture of his left leg, his jaw and possibly his skull.

The ballplayer had stopped off in Chicago to visit his parents, his wife and infant daughter. He was to return to Louisville Saturday night to rejoin his team, a Boston Red Sox farm club.

Spring Concert Thursday Night

Music Club Choruses To Present Program In First Methodist Church

NOTABLE PROGRAM TO BE PRESENTED

Music Club Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. William J. Caldwell, will present a spring concert in the First Methodist church on Thursday evening, May 12, at 8:30 o'clock. This concert promises to be a most outstanding program composed of a variety of secular choral compositions.

The chorus will have as soloists for this year's concert the Musical Arts Trio, Edwin Lewis, pianist, Anthony Casbero, violinist, and Tom Wiand, cellist.

Mr. Lewis and Mr. Casbero are active in the musical life of this community, where their excellent musicianship is well established. Mr. Lewis is organist and director of music for the First Methodist church and pianist and organist for the New Castle Symphony. Mr. Casbero is the conductor of the New Castle Symphony Orchestra and Tom Wiand, cellist, is attending Baldwin and Wallace Conservatory of Music at Berea, O., and is principal cellist with the New Castle Symphony.

Chorus To Sing
In the first group the chorus will sing "Come Gentle Spring" by Franz Joseph Hayden, who is known as the "Father of Instrumental Music" and is one of the "immortals"; "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" by Mason, and "Come and Sing," from Die Fledermous" by Strauss.

Obligato voices in this number are soprano, Miss Betty Smith, Miss Ruth Weir and Mrs. Dudley Arnold, and tenors, Fred Smith and Elmer Kanagy.

The Musical Arts Trio will then present "Trio No. 5 in E Flat Major" by Haydn in three movements.

"The Deacons Masterpiece" or "The Wonderful One Horse Shay," by Oliver Wendell Holmes is a humorous ballad set to music by Percy E. Fletcher. The chorus will be assisted in singing this number by a double quartet, soprano, Mrs. Paul Meehan, Miss Florence Thompson; also, Mrs. Bert Schroeder, Miss Charlotte Taylor; tenor, Fred Smith and Morgan Jones and bass, Charles Richards and George Wymann.

Musical Arts Trio
The Musical Arts Trio will then play "En Tr'Act" by Broutet; "Romance" by Debussy and "Rondo" by Haydn.

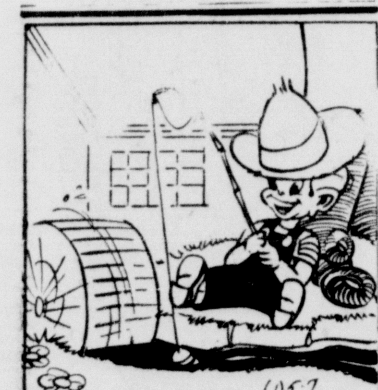

For their final group, the chorus will sing Fantasy on Stephen Foster's Songs, arranged by Harry Gilbert, with soloists: Mrs. Clark McClelland, soprano, and Mrs. D. H. McQuiston, alto. They will conclude the program with "At Twilight" by Francis Home and "The Music of Life" by Noble Cain. The chorus will be assisted on these two numbers by the Musical Arts Trio.

Mrs. Caldwell, the directress of the Chorus, has shown her mastery as a musician and director and each year she rises to new heights in the public eye. She will have this year as her accompanists two of New Castle's outstanding musicians, Mrs. Richard K. Allen at the piano and Edwin Lewis at the organ.

Mrs. Dorothy Gormley Smith, president of Music Club, anticipates an unusually fine program and urges all music lovers of the community to attend this spring concert. The public is cordially invited, there is no admission fee. There will be a rehearsal of the Chorus this evening at 7 o'clock in the First Methodist church.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

A Homemade Brook
Not many homes come equipped with a running brook. Yet for those who have a back yard, a little ingenuity and elbow grease can provide a reasonable facsimile.

Not long since, I sat beside one of these man-made brooks in a pleasant southern California back yard. Rocks had been piled up and cemented around a faucet. A channel or bed for the running water took it to the edge of the yard where trees often needed irrigating. Along the 10 or 15 feet that was the whole brook, water-loving grasses and plants had been planted. A few frogs and many insects found a pleasant home on its edges. A small, easily turning wheel added an interesting and useful touch. It turned a metal spit extending into an outdoor fireplace and made the job of roasting a leg of lamb almost no job at all.

Perhaps you'd like a small pool somewhere along your brook's course. You may have other ideas than those above that would add to the attractiveness and fun that an artificial brook can bring the whole family. As a family project in which young and old can participate, the planning, building and enjoying of a homemade brook is tops.

TRUE CONFESIONS

Again our buyers have made some mistakes and we are stuck, so if you love a bargain, beat it over here quickly. See these and many more.

ANNOUNCEMENT

One thing about this ad that is positively guaranteed is that everything said herein is absolutely true. Everyone makes mistakes—and our buyers are no exception. And so here we are—frankly admitting our errors and taking our licking with a smile. Read on and see what we mean.

KITCHEN STUFF

Picture a 5-Piece Dinette Set with a large oval-shaped extension table with a oh-so-smooth linen top, easy to clean, resistant to heat, acids and scratching. With it go 4 blue chairs with white piping. It is worth $139, but nobody believes us because it has been on our floors for 6 months. We know we can move it at $89.50, so we'll tag it $89.50.

Here is something extra special! A 5-Piece Breakfast or Dinette Set that is very different. The wood-topped table is perfectly round and has chrome legs and with it 4 chairs in a choice of green or yellow. It has been priced $119, but the top was scratched so we've just changed the price to $79.95. If you're handy around the house, you can retouch the top yourself.

It seems most people in New Castle who want wood breakfast sets want heavy wood. . . so we're stuck with an ultra modern, graceful bleached plywood 5-piece Breakfast Set. Not only are the chairs unusually charming but they have a pastel green upholstery that contrasts beautifully with the golden mahogany finish. It won't sell. It was marked $99.50. We'll cut it to $69.50.

Want a floor sample that doesn't look like a floor sample at a savings of $20 . . . a 5-piece Lloyd Chrome Breakfast Set. Rectangular table is a pretty shade of yellow. Set has been $99.50, but you can have it for $79.50.

If you prefer White Star Gas Ranges we have a floor model that we've reduced from $164.95 to $129.50. You have to look hard for the scratches.

Are you getting a lot of 'drop-ins' for Sunday breakfast? Do you need some extra kitchen chairs. We have plenty you can have—red duran seat and back and tubular chrome legs. They were $8.95 each. Nothing wrong with them but we have too darn many so take them for $5.95 each.

LIVING ROOM PIECES

If they keep reducing the size of phonograph records, Record Cabinets will become obsolete and you'll be able to reach in a cigarette case and pull out a hundred pieces. We don't want to hold our Record Cabinets that long, so we'll knock $15 off some very attractive ones. . . . Take 'em away for $18.75.

We thought we could sell this fireplace mantle for $69.50 at Christmas time. Everyone walked right past it. We'll let you have it for $69.00. If you haven't a solarium, but a sunny living room, it should look mighty gay there!

Want a stick reed sectional in a "terrible blue" cover? We'll save you $60 by letting you have it for $69.00. If you haven't a solarium, but a sunny living room, it should look mighty gay there!

We've got a few of last year's Gliders—one in red and one in green. Rock yourself into the dream world of Harvey for the low price of $29.50.

Imagine yourself sitting in your yard in a huge Rustic Lawn Chair. Comfortable thought, eh? We have been holding a few of these Rustic Chairs for 2 years now, and if we don't get them out of inventory, the boss is going to be awfully mad. Take them off our hands for $12.95 each.

Don't leave this 3 piece red sectional where a bull can see it, but it's no bull that it was $219 and now is $189 because it is a discontinued number.

Do you want a really delighted husband? Then get the "lord and master" in a good mood by buying him this blue Lounge Chair and Ottoman in soft mohair. It's no longer $129. The buyer examined everything on the floor, saw this Chair was shop-worn but not noticeably, and knocked the price down to $89.50 for both Chair and Ottoman.

Friendly Tip: $119 Lounge Chair in gray at Haney's. It's slightly soiled. You take off the small amount of dirt and we'll take off enough dollars to compensate. You can have it for $98.

When we put this 2 piece Gray Half Sections on the floor we thought it was something out of our fondest dreams, but now after nearly a year it becomes a nightmare. We believe we should share and share alike. How about you getting a few nightmares with it for $179 and cut the price with us from $239 to $179.

CHAIRS AN' CHAIRS

One buyer has goofed off so much that the boys call him "General." (Ex-GIs will understand!) Well he really fouled up this detail. Now we have beige, red and blue Lounge Chairs coming out of our ears. Sold a lot of these at $79.50 but still have stock, so we'll reduce them to $59.50. If he doesn't get rid of them at that price, I'm afraid the boss has a special detail for him and it isn't K.P.

Have a $319 two piece Frieze Living Room Suite in soiled blue for $198. We have one and one only at this savings of $121 so hurry!

We do have a different type of 2 Piece Frieze Living Room Suite at a savings of $60, but if your living room is small, this suite is larger than your living room and you wouldn't want to be sitting on the sofa with your husband and find him in the hall. It's priced $229.

If you are color blind, grab this 2 Piece Living Room Suite in Mohair, but a bad shade of rose. It's a $279 suite for only $198. Don't let too much light into the living room, maybe your friends won't notice it!

Have a Cocktail Table in horrible blonde finish. It was $29.50 but we'll try to get rid of it for $14.50 and at that price you can afford to cover it with cigarette box, ash trays, a box of candy, and magazines. . . and who will notice the finish!

We've got an Occasional Table almost as old as the store. It has always been priced $39.50, but we think we'll play a trick on the boss. We'll cut it to $19.95 and let him wonder why it isn't on the next inventory.

We have a blond Cocktail Table longer than your sofa. . . and it's been with us longer than we can remember. The salesmen don't laugh any more when they come to the Third Floor and see it, so the buyer just reduced it $60. Take it home for $19.95. You'll get your money's worth in laughs.

We've got a two-tone blue odd Chair from a living room suite and we do mean odd. With all the blue and grey curves and dips it's more dressed up than Mrs. Astor-bilt in the Easter parade. We just took off the $119 price tag and put another on that reads: $79.50. Now who's going to get the wealth of relaxation out of this seating piece!

Financial Item: Haney's are selling a $219 Two Piece Blue Mohair Living Room Suite for $169. Now $50 doesn't grow on bushes, and a furniture upholstery cleaner to take off the New Castle soil only costs 50c. You're still $49.50 to the good!

$139 Two Piece Living Room in rose . . . but what a reddish rose! Even the bull would be frightened. Take it away for $87.50!

If you aren't too fussy about colors, you can have this 2 Piece Mohair Living Room in an "off color rose" for $198. Was $279.

If you've read this far, you deserve a reward. Here's one: Blond Oval Coffee Table that was $44.50. Now yours for $19.95.

We wish the French had this French Inlaid Coffee Table and French Inlaid Commodes. We'll reduce the Coffee Table $30. Take it for $89.50. Of course $77 from the pair of Commodes. They are yours for $98. Oui, oui, M'sieu and Madame?

An empty Love Seat Chair is as pathetic as only one Love Bird in a cage. This Love Seat Chair is too big for one and not big enough for two plump ones. It has been priced $129, but we'll cut it to $69. Hurry up, all skinny lovers. Don't miss this!

Let this Wing Chair fly to you. We can't make it fly. Sells for $85. We can't sell it. Buy it for $59.50.

Ever see a Gray 2-Cushion Sofa that looks 10 years old. We have one. It was tagged $209. If you take it as is, you can have it for $129. You'll be surprised how a little elbow grease will bring back the sofa's youth!

The bang-up, scratch-up and mar-up section of our warehouse fell down on their job and the French High Back Living Room Chair has ten minutes before I found it. We'll part with this $135 Chair for $79.50 as is. It's mighty pretty!

FOR LIVIN' ALSO

If someone composed a song entitled "Old, Old, Old," it would be about our Leather Top Cocktail Table that has just been insulted by slipping from $65 to $24.95.

Kid Mohair is the very first shearing of the goat and it is silky soft. Haney's have a beautiful gray Sofa tailored in kid mohair. Was $265. We've had it six months so down comes the price to $198.

Do you have a kneehole desk that is lonely for a desk chair? We have some attractive blond ones that we'll close-out at $4.95.

A pair of gold Hostess Chairs to set on each side of the fireplace, or before the television set or near an interesting occasional table. They are the last pair we have so you can have them for $59.50 each instead of $89.50.

Doesn't anybody drink in New Castle on surrounding territory? We have had $89.50 Mahogany Cellerette for months and months waiting to be filled with the "precious liquids" poets sing about. Nothing happens. If it's price that is wrong, you can have it for $59.50. Maybe now someone will buy it to serve milk drinks!

Confidential Tip: You can find some Coffee or Cocktail Tables here priced as is $5.95 and some Hassocks in 19x covers as low as $2.95.

Let one of our trucks lug a bright yellow Cocktail Chair to your place. It's down $30 in price to $39.50. On the same trip, the truck could bring along a $32.50 mahogany bookcase now $27.50 or a $39.50 walnut one, now $24.50. Then you could sit in your new Cocktail Chair sipping a martini, reach for a gruesome book like "A Hundred Ways To Commit Murder" from your new bookcase, and get your nerves on an end you won't need any more excitement for a month.

Maybe this is just what you have been looking for: A Beige Tapestry Pullup Chair. Was $16.50. It has lingered so we'll wrap it up for $9.95.

When you speak of Valentine Seaver Lounge Chairs, you are speaking of quality. This Valentine Seaver in rose is $99.50 — I mean, was $99.50. It's the last one we have and it's six months old . . . so out it goes for $69.50. So hurry, if you want it!

We have a Mahogany 18th Century Cocktail Table but we don't intend to keep it for the 28th Century so off comes $30. Take it away for $39.50!

Rest your weary knees under this smart $89.50 Mahogany Kneehole Desk and write Haney's a check for only $59.50. We just have two left and we're pricing them to clear.

Enjoy a mahogany Lamp Table with a hand-rubbed, candle-glow finish for $19.95 instead of the usual $32.50. Our nervous buyer included four of these tables in this sale each at $19.95 to reduce his inventory before he goes to the market.

We also threw in a Blue Glass Lamp Table for 1/2 price—$12.95 for the same reason.

Plagued by a hundred minute details in the course of a furniture buyer's way of life, he didn't do a Dick Tracy or Charley Chan and scrutinize the facts carefully enough. When he woke up he had chairs to the right of him; chairs to the left of him and chairs in his dreams. He's going to move them by lopping off part of the price. A Barrel Back Gold Tap Chair goes from $59.50 to $39.50. A Wing Gray Chair goes from $54 to $39.95. A Blue Lounge Chair goes from $89.50 to $59.50; and a Maple Lounge Chair goes from $69.50 to $49.50. Now, folks, don't crowd!

Are you tired? Do your bones ache? Feel run down? Then buy this 3 Piece Sofa Bed Suite in Maple. Regularly $219. We've looked at it for at least four months so we'll give it to you for $169.50 . . . or if you prefer a lovely 3 Piece Maple Sectional. Worth $139 but due to its delayed departure now $89.50.

Maple is a friendly cordial wood for making Colonial adaptations, but these pieces are too friendly. They've outworn their welcome. Maybe you'll take them off our hands for a consideration. Here's the consideration: $8.95 Coffee Table for $4.95; $12.95 Desk Chair for $8.95; $89.50 Five Piece Dinette Set for $59.50; $19.95 What-Not Shelf for $14.50; $8.95 Lamp Table for $4.95.

Even if the public haven't discovered it yet, it is a fact that Rubber Latex Mattresses—yes, we mean Rubber Mattresses—are as soft as down; as comfortable as the May wind touching your cheek, but Haney's can't afford to spend millions on an educational campaign telling people to buy these mattresses. So we'll drop the price from $98 to $59.88.

RUGS AND SUCH

When felt base Linoleum Rugs were hard to get, we bought what we could get. Some didn't sell as well as they should. So here are the 'price' reductions: 9x12 Lino Rugs, were $10.95, and now $7.95; 6x9 Lino Rugs, were $4.95 and now $2.25; 7x9 Lino Rugs, were $5.95, and now $2.95, and 9x9 Lino Rugs, were $6.95, and now $3.45.

When you see this Carpet Runner, you'll probably want to run, but if you tarry, you can have our 27-inch Candy Stripe for $2.49 square yard. We also have some awful 36-inch grey that looks as if the backing was the face-up side . . . so you can have this $7.95 square yard runner for $3.95.

Save $100. A Gray-Twist 12'x17' Carpet marked $498 is going for $398. It has been slightly soiled from hanging.

We're looking for the vascal who faintly dusts rugs that are merely hanging round doing no harm. We have a 9x12 Royal Wilton Rug, regularly $239, and now $198; and a 9x12 Beige Rug, regularly $89.50, and now $69.50.

Want a 9x12 Off-Shadow Green Rug. It's too off-shade for $159 but you can't make a mistake at $110. Also a number of other off-shade 9x12 rugs for $54.50.

FOR THE BEDROOM

According to our esteemed general salesmen, many women have called this Pinstripe Walnut Bedroom Suite "beautiful" but they have to bring their husbands in to see it for approval. (Hubby never should have showed up). Guess $298 for the Dresser, Vanity, Robe and Bed, scared him. Well, hubby, dear, we shoved the priced down to $198, so let's make the little woman happy.

Distinguished 18th Century Mahogany Bedroom Suite with swell fronted. Bed, Chest on Chest, and Dresser or Vanity were $198. We've sold a lot, but this spot on the floor should now have an entirely different suite. So here goes for $169.

If you like 18th Century Mahogany Bedroom Suites, here is something extra special made by the finest cabinetmakers in the world. Five pieces include Bed, Chest on Chest, Dresser, Vanity and Bench. It is easily worth $495 but you can have it for $395.

Even if the public haven't discovered it yet, it is a fact that Rubber Latex Mattresses—yes, we mean Rubber Mattresses—are as soft as down; as comfortable as the May wind touching your cheek, but Haney's can't afford to spend millions on an educational campaign telling people to buy these mattresses. So we'll drop the price from $98 to $59.88.

Buy your wives one of these $12.50 Boudoir Chairs for $5 . . . or we have some $8.95 Cricket Chairs we'll let go for the same price. . . Remember it's harder for her to throw dishes at you sitting than it is standing.

IF YOU CAN'T PAY CASH . . . TAKE MONTHS TO PAY

You have heard the expression "strong as the Rock of Gibraltar." We sometimes think this Solid Cathedral Oak Bedroom Suite is stronger . . . particularly if we stub our toe on it. We know you'll have the moving men swearing at its weight. Select Chest, Bed and Dresser, a $195 value for $147 and add the other pieces later.

Here's a pippin! We wouldn't accuse a manufacture of padding orders, and we know they make mistakes, just the same as the rest of us, but they did send us a double shipment of Sofa Beds, and brother, are we loaded. We'll guarantee they are the best buy in town for this new price—$38.

Folks, there are a lot of Haney's bargains are going to forget to write down in our ad, so come in and look the store over carefully. You won't regret it.

When we saw some of these Maple Bedroom Suites they actually made us drool. Now we've stopped drooling. They have been around a few months. We'd hate to tell you how much they cost us, but we'll sell you a $249 Three Piece Suite with Bed, Dresser and Chest for $179; a $179 Three Piece Suite for $119; and a $149 Three Piece Suite for $98.

Can't say we blame our salesmen for getting tired of looking at the same Headboards 'day-in . . . day-out'. Would sell easily anywhere else for $24.50. Wonder if we can change the salesmen's viewpoint if we mark them $9.95.

Jeepers . . . like rabbits they multiply. We mean the pieces in our Odd Piece Department. People of Lawrence County have bought Bedroom Suites leaving us the Dresser, or Vanity, Vanity Bench and Night Stand. We are giving "Orchids" in the form of savings of $20, $30, $40 and $50 to you who buy them! You'll be surprised how cheaply they've been marked.

We've some lovely, lovely, lovely Mr. and Mrs. Dressers. Customers bought all the rest of the suites but left the piece de resistance—these Mr. and Mrs. Dressers including Landscape Mirrors. They're in delicate Pinstripe Walnut. Originally they sold for $149, but we'll close them out for $88.

Buy your wives one of these $12.50 Boudoir Chairs for $5 . . . or we have some $8.95 Cricket Chairs we'll let go for the same price. . . Remember it's harder for her to throw dishes at you sitting than it is standing.

There he goes sailing into that $79 price of the Yorktown Drop Leaf Table as if he were Paul Revere and the British were coming. Bang! He made it $49. Better grab it before he calms down.

It's a 54-inch American Sink. It's regularly $159.95, but it is marred very, very slightly so we're selling it for $139.95.

$219.50 Bendix Automatic Washer duz everything but brush your teeth. We have too many, so step up to the pay window and make a down payment. You can have it for $149.50.

$99.50 Thor Gladirons. We're used them to demonstrate. They are in wonderful condition. Only $79.95.

Housewives and Gift Buyers Attention! These $21.56 Pop-up Toasters were fine when we couldn't get Toastmasters. Now we can, so we'll sell these others for $16.95.

Full Eight-Cup Silx Coffee Makers in perfect condition, but we're overstocked and how! Were $8.95 and now $5.

Calling all good housewives! You'll have the whitest wash in town with this $139.50 Thor Washer, a floor sample, we will sell for $114.95. It's in perfect working condition.

Our absent-minded Bedding Buyer must have forgotten how many beds Haney's really had. When he woke up, the boss must have reminded him because $14.50 Metal Beds are being pencilled $9.95; $44.50 Poster Beds are being tagged $24.88; $44.50 Bunk Beds are now $29; Rollaways with Mattress are $16.88. I'll bet that buyer isn't sleeping so well lately!

A LOT OF LIGHT

Someone will really "blow a fuse" pretty soon if we don't finish selling these $12.95 torchere and seven-way floor lamps. Take 'em away for $8.88.

We have a seven-way floor lamp with a self-starting Sessions Electric Clock on it. The clock doesn't ring or chime. Just keeps good time. Was $24.95 and now $19.88.

We buy lamps in pairs. When a customer wants only one that leaves us with an odd lamp. So we've cut the prices of these odd lamps right and left. Even have some down to $2.95.

Our cleaning women say with considerable surprise that they have been dusting a few of our dining room pieces a little longer than usual. Dining Room furniture usually whizzes out about as fast as it is put on the floor. So the $129 Five Piece Mengel Mahogany Dinette has been changed to $98; the $139 Five Piece Dropleaf Table and 4 Chairs in Bisque to $98, and the $249 Eight-Piece Blond Dinette to $198.

HOUSEHOLD NEEDS

A $325 Capehart Radio-Phono Combination now $249. It has fine tone and a mahogany cabinet, but we need to make room for television.

Take this $24.95 Philco Table Radio for $19.95. Not much to look at but it plays fine!

Special purchase permits Haney's to pass on these $425 Radio-Phonographs with 14 tubes and beautiful mahogany cabinet to you for $199.95. (Well, just don't sit there!)

NEW YORK, May 9.—(INS)—Opponents of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., planned today an effort to prevent the son of the late president from voting for his own election to congress.

The Republican county law committee charges that Roosevelt has not been a resident of New York county the required four months to enable him to vote in the special election on May 17.

Disqualification as a voter, however, will not bar Roosevelt as a candidate for the congressional seat of the late Sol Bloom, it was pointed out. Roosevelt's legal address has been Nassau county, his opponents say.

The headquarters of the 29-nation (CAO) International Civil Aviation Organization is at Montreal, Canada.

WILLIAM H. LUDEN DIES

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., May 9.

(INS)—Funeral services were planned today for William H. Luden, 90, retired manufacturer who turned a lagging candy business into a flourishing cough drop empire.

Luden died suddenly yesterday at his Atlantic City home. He had apparently been in good health until yesterday morning.

New Jersey Woman Holds $10,000 For Four Days*Picks Up Wrong Bag At Railroad Station: Didn't Know Money Was In It

MILWAUKEE, May 9.—(INS)—A New Jersey woman with a strange story of having held $10,000 for four days without knowing it.

Mrs. William C. Ewan of Clayton, N. J., arrived in Milwaukee on Monday to visit her sister, Mrs. Teresa Haacker.

Mrs. Haacker, anxious to help her sister, picked up her luggage and hustled her off to her home. All week long the sisters visited and neither noticed that one piece of luggage—a black bag—did not belong to Mrs. Ewan.

Finally, as Mrs. Ewan was preparing to return to her home yesterday, she noticed the black bag and told her sister it didn't belong to her.

The sisters called up the railroad station and asked if anyone was missing a little black bag. An excited voice told them to bring it right in and so they did.

At the station, police opened the bag and revealed its contents: Ten thousand dollars in bonds. The securities had been lost by Mrs. Matilda Mandery, of Clintonville, Wis., who was buying a railroad ticket when Mrs. Ewan arrived.

College Trustees Meet With Dr. Orr*Special Religious Service Is Conducted At Westminster College On Saturday

Members of the Board of Trustees of Westminster College, their wives, faculty members and their families and other college staff members, participated in the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper in the college chapel Saturday morning.

The service was arranged so that the term of Dr. Will W. Orr, new college president, would be inaugurated in sacred fashion.

Participating in the service were: Dr. Wayne Christy, acting head of the Bible department; Dr. James M. Ferguson of Bellevue, president of the Board; Dr. John Orr, dean, and President Will W. Orr.

"We are all part of Westminster and of the Lord's work" was the thought of the sermon which President Orr delivered.

The service followed a brief continued meeting of the board at which routine business was discussed.

Description Of Woman's Slayer Held By Police

PITTSBURGH, May 9.—(INS)—Police today had a fairly complete description of the man who brutally beat to death Betty Donovan, 32, in a Pittsburgh hotel last week.

After questioning witnesses who saw the couple together prior to their registration at the hotel early Thursday morning, officers compile the description.

The man, believed to be a laborer for an Interstate Trucking company, was described as well-built, about 27 years old, and weighs nearly 158.

Police believe the slayer lacks the middle and third or ring finger of his right hand and has curly blond hair.

PRODUCTION RESUMED

PHILADELPHIA, May 9.—(INS)—Production was resumed today at Philco plants and warehouses after a week-long work stoppage by 6,500 workers.

The employees walked out last Monday, charging that the company's failure to agree with the union on a new wage contract constituted a "lockout."

Members of two locals of the CIO-United Electrical Workers voted yesterday to accept an agreement reached with the company last Friday.

NEW CASTLE, PA.CASTLEWOOD*MOTHERS-DAUGHTERS DINE

The mothers and daughters banded together Tuesday, May 3, was well attended, 74 being present. The tables were beautifully decorated with wild pink cherry and dogwood blossoms.

Mrs. Ruth Moore, chairlady of the occasion, gave a short address, followed by Mrs. Elizabeth Harris giving a toast to the mothers. Geradine Currie gave the toast to the daughters.

Before supper pep songs were sung, after which the oldest mother, Mrs. Glasser, age 75, and the youngest mother, Mrs. Ruth Ruby of Wartburg, age 24, were presented.

Mrs. Ruth Moore gave a reading, "The Beautiful Word is Mother"; Mrs. Elizabeth Harris sang a solo, "Mother is a Word That Means the World to Me"; Mrs. Frank Wiley of Ellwood City gave an interesting talk, her theme being "Today's life is the future of tomorrow."

A pantomime play was presented. The characters were: Mrs. Beryl Hogue and baby, Kathy Johnston, Mrs. E. J. Moss, Paddy Joe Currie, Mrs. Hazel Tilla, Mrs. George Thomas, Donna Tilla, June Currie, Betty Deemer, Rhoda Kay Deemer and Mrs. Clara Young. The aides were Carl Johnson, Don Hogue, John Henderson, Glen Deemer, Clyde Moore, Joseph Cowan, Harold Currie, Dale Currie and Rev. E. J. Moss.

CASTLEWOOD NOTES

Rev. Virgil Mayberry of Baltimore, Md., arrived on Wednesday morning to visit with his mother of East Washington street and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Young of Castlewood. Rev. Mayberry and his wife and son Johnny left Saturday for Baltimore.

Wade Young had an accident the other evening in which he drove a splinter about three inches into his leg. He was taken to Ellwood City hospital to have it removed. He is getting along as well as can be expected.

The executive board of the Harmony Baptist church will meet Friday night at 8 in the church.

Billy Stiefel is getting along as well as can be expected. He is able to attend school on crutches.

Mr. and Mrs. George Thomas of Castlewood visited their son, William R. D. 1, the occasion being the fifth birthday of their little daughter.

Miss Lettisha Howells arrived here Wednesday from Maestey, South Wales. She has visited Mr. and Mrs. Griff Lewis of New Castle and George Thomas of Wimpum R. D. 1. Miss Howells had a wonderful ocean trip. She will be in the United States for three or four months.

Remains Of More District War Dead Being Returned*Large Number From County And Adjacent Area Being Returned From Europe

Remains of more Americans who lost their lives during World War Two, are being returned to their home areas for final burial aboard the U. S. Army Transport Haiti Victory, the Department of the Army announced.

They were originally interred in temporary military cemeteries in France, Holland and Belgium.

The listed and their next to kin, follow:

Capt. William P. Campbell, Air Force, Mrs. Lula N. Campbell, Box 356, Wampum.

Pvt. Robert E. Davis, Army, James I. Davis, R.D. 2, Harrisville.

S-Sgt. Carl Falba, Air Force, Mrs. Theresa Falba, Box 508, R.D. 8, Morris street.

T-Sgt. John S. Massa, Air Force, Mrs. Mary L. Massa, 351 Third avenue, Koppel.

S-Sgt. Jay W. Palmer, Air Force, William W. Palmer, 127 North Center street, Grove City.

S-Sgt. Robert E. Spaulding, Air Force, Mrs. Anna K. Spaulding, R.D. 2, Grove City.

Pfc. Robert H. Wilson, Mrs. Grace Cartwright, 434 County Line street.

GARDEN NOTES

Dig a little hydrated lime in around cabbages, for they like a sweet soil. Broccoli also benefits from this treatment. Do not injure the roots in applying the lime.

Broccoli is easier to grow than cauliflower. Six plants will supply a small family, since it is an all-season crop.

For a succession of bloom of gladioli, plant corns every two weeks until July.

To protect cabbages, tomatoes, peppers and eggplant against cutworms, wrap a paper collar around the stem of these plants when they are set out. Use several thicknesses of newspaper or thin cardboard.

It is not too late to transplant perennials. Take them up with plenty of soil and keep them well watered.

If narcissus bulbs have run out and have not bloomed for a year or two, dig up the clumps as soon as the leaves have thoroughly matured, separate the mass of large and small bulbs that will be found and replant in well fertilized ground.

INJURED IN FALL
Thomas Maguski of 1943 Morris street, son of Michael Maguski, was injured in a fall from his bicycle Saturday at 3 p. m. when the wheel fell off while riding. He received brush burns of the left elbow and right hand, and was treated in the New Castle hospital, and later discharged.

TAU DELTA CLASS ENJOYS BANQUET

Members of the Tau Delta class of the Epworth Methodist church held a mothers and daughters banquet at the church Friday evening. The dinner was served by members of the Doreas class at candlelit tables. Beautifully appointed and aqua. Place cards were little dolls with hand-crocheted dresses and hats to be used as lapel pins.

Mrs. W. C. Druschell, president of the Tau Delta class, was toastmistress and introduced Miss Pollyne Parker who gave the invocation. Mrs. G. S. Stitzinger, one of the first teachers of the class, and Mrs. Joe Campbell, present teacher, told the guests of the work done by the class during the past year. Mrs. Gilmore Smith gave the toast to the Mothers and Mrs. Elmer Kerr responded with a toast to the daughters. Mrs. A. C. Howe then talked on "Mothers."

Mrs. Druschell introduced Miss Mildred Lusk and Mrs. Robert Loy, program chairmen, who put on a television show, with the aid of Sue Giancola, Elsie Brown, Ida Fisher and Clara De Lucia. The decorating committee was: Clara Lightner, Helen Robinson, Dorothy Depp, Geraldine Gilmore, Gladys Goley and Connie Sanfilippo. Those responsible for the selection of menu were Louise Burgo, Elizabeth Chamberlain, Marjorie Riney, Olive Richards, Margaret McKissack and Ruth Smith. The Misses Pollyne Parker and Marjorie Clarke were in charge of the sale of tickets.

Serviceman Honored
Mrs. William Anderson, of 722 Monroe street, entertained a group of the family in her home, recently, in honor of her grandson Pfc. R. G. McCartney, who is home on furlough from his army duties.

Present were honored guest's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. McCartney, Sr., and daughter Beverly, of Hillcrest avenue; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Kerr and children and Miss Carol McClain.

Pfc. McCartney has been stationed at Tucson, Arizona for the past eight months and will leave for Savannah, Ga., sometime this week.

Carburetor Too Rich... Makes Motorists Too Poor

Car owners who are wasting money and not getting proper gas mileage due to over-rich mixtures will be pleased to learn of a Wisconsin inventor who has developed a very clever unit that helps save gasoline by "Vacuum-mating". It is automatic and operates on the supercharge principle. Easily installed in a few minutes. Fits all cars, trucks, tractors. The manufacturers, the Vacuum Carburetor Co., 7617-665-G State St., Wauwatosa, Wis., are offering a Vacuumatic to anyone who will install it on his car and help introduce it to others. They will gladly send full free particulars if you write them or just send your name and address on a penny post card today.

WESTFIELD WOMEN ENJOY BANQUET

Mothers and daughters of Westfield Presbyterian church, numbering 185, enjoyed a banquet on Saturday evening in Westfield grange hall. Season flowers and white tapers decorated the tables, where a carnation favor marked each place.

Mrs. John M. Fife served as toastmistress, while grace was offered by Mrs. C. A. Stewart. The program, arranged by Miss Alice Fullerton, opened with a musical interlude by Miss Grace Reed, pianist.

Mrs. William Fox gave a toast to daughters, to which Mrs. Charles Pitzer responded with one to the mothers. Rev. Thomas Russell, pastor of Unity Presbyterian church and talk artist, illustrated several hymns with Mrs. J. M. Ahlstedt, of Bessemer, as accompanist.

Mrs. Harry Reed, Mrs. J. W. Fullerton, Miss Helen Hope, Mrs. Verlyn Stearns and Mrs. William Price composed the committee for the delightful function. Mrs. Effie Henry assisted Miss Fullerton in the decorations and in making the programs which were in the form of green booklets. Miss Eileen Gwin was chairman of the ticket committee.

Body On Flag Day

WILL BE HIGHLIGHT OF SPRING REUNION

Among the distinguished guests who will be in attendance at the spring reunion of the Coordinate Bodies of the Valley of New Castle, Ancient Accepted Scottish Rite, in The Cathedral will be Ill. Edward G. Martin, 33, U. S. Senator from Pennsylvania, Commander in Chief C. C. Merle Ransley announced today.

Senator Martin will be present on the opening day of the reunion, June 14, and will address the members in connection with Flag Day, which occurs that day.

The reunion, which opens Tuesday, June 14, will last through Friday, June 17, when a large class of candidates will receive their degrees in the Scottish Rite bodies. Announcement is also made that the family party previously scheduled for Saturday, May 21, has been cancelled.

Cancer Society Fund Drive Is Extended

American Cancer society's drive for funds in the state of Pennsylvania has been extended until May 16, according to an official announcement received at the local unit today.

The reason given for the extension is several work stoppages were experienced in eastern area plants and drives of other charitable organizations extended into April, cancer month.

According to Mrs. Blake Waldo, co-chairman in Lawrence county, the drive here has been progressing satisfactorily but the extension will give a better opportunity to go over the $18,000 goal.

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY CONDUCTS MEETING

New Castle Hospital auxiliary met in the Nurses Home with the president, Mrs. E. D. Woods in charge.

Speaker of the afternoon was Mr. Stubbs, who spoke on the campaign in progress at the New Castle hospital.

The point system was again explained by Mrs. Ralph Markley and she stated that it will soon be put into effect.

A film, "You're the Doctor," was shown to the group. Dainty refreshments were served with the chairman, Mrs. W. C. Fulton, in charge. Her aides were Mrs. Joseph Wendt, Mrs. C. P. Zaremba and Mrs. Ben Ciccone. June 2 is the next meeting.

Patch Tests Given St. Mary's Pupils

Patch testing the students of St. Mary's parochial school was completed Friday by Mrs. Jane M. Cochran, executive secretary of the Lawrence County Tuberculosis society.

All students in the odd-numbered grades were tested and those who react positively will be X-rayed. It is the plan to do the odd-grades each year. This will permit testing of all of the students at least once every two years.

R. Winfield Smith, state executive field secretary from Harrisburg, was a visitor at the local tuberculosis office during the week. He is helping the force here compile a new mailing list and is giving new methods in keeping it up to date.

Lawrence county physicians and tuberculosis officials have been invited to attend the annual state meeting and forum in Pittsburgh May 25 to 27. Several physicians from the community have already expressed their intentions to attend the medical session Thursday morning, May 26.

The Symphony orchestra, which is composed of the city's leading musicians and has been rehearsing for some time for its first big appearance.

LOCAL SAILOR SERVES ON SEAPLANE TENDER

Nick Piscitelli, seaman apprentice, USN, of 218 Home street, has reported aboard the seaplane tender USS Chantrelure with the Philadelphia group, Atlantic Reserve Fleet.

Piscitelli, who entered naval service January 10, 1947, at the Naval Recruiting Station, New Castle, Pa., received his recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Bainbridge, Md.

New Castle School Budget Is Ignored

Budget For 1949-50 Was On Display For 20 Days; No One Bothered To Notice It

Apparently the taxpayers of New Castle have little interest in their public school budget.

The budget for 1949-50 was placed upon public display in April and remained upon display for 20 days. During this time it was open for anyone to inspect it, ask questions and familiarize themselves with what was to be spent in the coming school year.

According to John B. Behctol, secretary and business manager of the New Castle school board, not one person went to the office of the school board and asked to see the budget.

This year not even a salesmen for books or equipment looked at the budget, nor an employee of the schools, nor any other citizen.

The budget as it was displayed calls for $1,693,576. To this must be added many thousands of dollars in salary increases and perhaps repairs and improvements to buildings.

Business Census Will Start Soon

Census Director Edwin Courtney Almost Ready To Start Operations

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

Within a short time, possibly two weeks, the business census of Lawrence county will start.

Edwin Courtney has been appointed census director for five western Pennsylvania counties with headquarters in New Castle. His offices are on the third floor of the court house annex.

The business census will precede the individual census which will start sometime after January 1, 1950.

The census staff of 12 will cover the five counties and among the information the census takers will want will be the total employment, payroll, type of business and similar information.

TAX AMENDMENTS

While the bill is not yet signed, it seems probable that Governor James H. Duff will sign Senate Bill 446. This bill amends House Bill 481, the so-called "tax anything" bill.

Some confusion has resulted from incorrect accounts of the bill and Attorney William J. Caldwell has been able to get a copy of the bill, thus ending the confusion.

The bill amends Bill 481 as follows: It limits wage taxes to a total of 10 mills. It prohibits school boards from levying wage taxes upon non-residents.

It permits school boards and city and borough councils to levy wage taxes, but no more than ten mills over all, which must be divided 50-50 between the two bodies or divided in such manner as the two bodies agree.

It does not, as was previously reported, prohibit school boards from levying wage taxes. It merely restricts them to residents of the school district. Where a non-resident is taxed 10 mills in a municipality the entire tax goes to the city or borough, providing the home district of the taxpayer has not levied a wage tax.

Recruiting, under supervision of the training officer, Lieut. E. J. Long, of Squadron 68, got under way at U. S. Air Force Recruiting office, Room 400, Frew building. Response to the program in New Castle was a pleasing one. Lieut. Long stated recruiting plans for next Saturday in the Frew building will be carried out from 10 a. m. till 4 p. m. in age groups 15 to 21 for both male and female cadets. This program is a volunteer unit of the air force training program. C. A. P. expects to fill its cadet quota by next Saturday. It was announced by the commanding officer, J. J. Hackles.

Help Your Child Grow Bigger and Stronger 8 Ways with Wonder Bread!

Smart To Serve And Smart To Buy...

Because

Penny For Penny, Wonder Bread Gives Your Child 46% More Body-Building Protein Than The Average Of Meat, Milk, Fish and Eggs... Remember—Without Protein No Child Can Grow.

Because

Penny For Penny, Wonder Bread Gives Your Child More Energy For Work And Play Than Potatoes... Remember—Without Energy A Child Can't Get Good Report Cards.

*Comparisons based on latest available prior statistics from U. S. Department of Labor.

Help Build Strong Bodies 8 Ways with WONDER BREAD!

Note How Amazing Wonder Bread Compares With Meat, Milk, and Fish In Certain Growth And Energy-Building Contents (as stated above)

Without protein no child can grow in body or brain. Growing children need TWICE the protein per pound of body weight as grownups.

These foods are good for protein: Meat, Milk, Fish, Eggs, Nuts, and Wonder Bread.

Penny for penny, Wonder Bread gives your child 46% more body-building protein than the average of meat, milk, fish and eggs.

Better For Energy Than Potatoes

Without energy no child can work, study or play. Potatoes are good for energy. So is Wonder Bread.

Penny for penny, Wonder Bread gives your child more energy than potatoes. And is better in protein for child growth.

TIME TEARS ON

Folks who are not awake to changes miss much in these days of progress in science and industry.

In food you can be missing plenty. You may have served the same bread because you didn't know about the remarkable improvements in famous Wonder Bread.

Because our laboratories and our food scientists are working all the time to make Wonder Bread better, millions of mothers are saying, "It's the finest bread we've ever had and I wish we had discovered Wonder Bread sooner."

So don't delay. Change today to this popular Wonder Bread. It builds strong bodies 8 ways.

Helps Build Strong Bodies 8 Ways

The chart above shows the 8 body and brain-building properties of Wonder Bread. Serve Wonder Bread together with fruits, vegetables, meat, milk, fish and eggs in a well-balanced diet. Give your child every chance to build body and brain. 8 ounces of Wonder Bread for a growing child cost less than a dime a day. Certainly you can afford Wonder Bread for your child.

Doubly Fresh

Children love Wonder Bread. Plain or toasted. Because Wonder Bread is doubly fresh—fresh when you buy it; fresh when you eat it. Because sio-baked—13% longer than many ordinary kinds for lasting freshness.

State Corn Team To Conduct Tests

Will Conduct Tests To Determine Which Soils Of The State Lack Magnesium

STATE COLLEGE, Pa., May 9.—More than a thousand corn growers of Pennsylvania will be part of the corn team of the Pennsylvania Agricultural Experiment Station under a novel program launched to determine which soils of the state are lacking in magnesium.

This element affects the growth and quality of crops other than corn, but is of extreme importance to corn, leading farm crop of the state, according to Dr. L. L. Huber, head of the corn team. For this reason a special inbred line of corn has been obtained as a tester plant strain, and is being distributed to cooperating growers.

Huber says this corn inbred is particularly sensitive to magnesium deficiencies in the soil, showing as striping of leaves, height of the plant, and the quality of the grain.

Virtually all northeastern states have areas in which the soil is lacking in magnesium, and the widespread planting of the tester strain is one means of spotting the pockets or areas.

AA county agents and vocational agriculture advisers have been supplied with quantities of seed of the tester plant strain. These will be distributed to growers and farmers so that 50 kernels can be planted in a row at the outside of the corn field this year. In this manner, the tester plant can illustrate magnesium available to the entire corn field.

Airlift Pilot Is Looking Forward To Seeing Berlin

Has Flown Airlift 212 Times And Is Looking Forward To Seeing Berlin On Ground

FRANKFURT, May 9.—(INS)—Lt. Duke Lawrence, who has flown the airlift to Berlin a mere 212 times, is looking forward to the lifting of the blockade—so he can see the German city on the ground.

The South Charleston, W. Va., pilot, who with his air force buddies has helped lick the Russian land siege, says:

"We won't know what to do with ourselves when the airlift ends."

"I guess we will have to go to Berlin and have a look at the city. We have never seen it except from the air or from the ground immediately in the Tempelhof area."

Tempelhof is the American air terminus in Berlin for airlift planes coming from West Germany. As far as Duke Lawrence and his crew are concerned, it's the only part of Berlin they know—and their stops-off have usually been brief.

Lawrence and his fellow airlift flyers have not forgotten that 22 western Allied airmen lost their lives in the gigantic effort to feed and supply West Berlin's two and one-half million residents.

But until such time as the aerial bridge is officially declared ended—and present plans call for it to keep operating beyond the May 12 date for ending the blockade—the giant planes will keep roaring over the face of Germany, reminders of American aerial might and determination.

Military Personnel Ordered To Avoid Pact Discussion

Defense Secretary Johnson Made This And Two Other Directives To Personnel

WASHINGTON, May 9.—(INS)—Military personnel are under orders today to avoid public discussion of the North Atlantic Pact pending final Senate action on the treaty.

This and two other directives by Defense Secretary Johnson to the secretaries of Army, Navy and Air Force were made public by William Frye, head of the defense establishment's public information office.

Frye indicated that security review standards for the three services are under study by his office and are likely to be further tightened soon.

In addition to forbidding military personnel to discuss the pact publicly, the directive states:

1. "No information of any kind whatsoever relating to performance or capabilities of new weapons or new equipment of any type will be released to the public without specific clearance from this office."

2. "No article which touches on a controversial subject shall be published, nor shall any public address which touches on such a subject be delivered, by any of the secretaries, undersecretaries, assistant secretaries, chiefs of staff, chief of naval operations, deputy chiefs of staff, or vice chief of naval operations, without prior submission and approval by the secretary of defense."

The great fire of Baltimore, which occurred on February 7, 1904, destroyed 2,500 buildings.

PIN-WORM Mystery Ended

For centuries, millions of Pin-Worm victims have desperately sought a way to deal with these pests that live in the human body.

A new, scientific treatment, Jaime's P-W Vermifuge, now offers real relief. P-W's vital ingredient is a medically-approved drug that attacks Pin-Worms in the intestines and removes them from the body.

So watch for warning signs, especially the tormenting rectal itch. Then ask your druggist for P-W, the small, easy-to-take tablets perfected by the famous Jaime Co., specialists in worm remedies for over 100 years.

Mt. Jackson School Practices For Opera

Cast Of Opera Put Final Touches To Opera Which Will Be Presented May 13

What's the hustle and bustle at Mt. Jackson High school all about?

For the chorus it's an intensive two weeks of practice, for committees the completion of all the details that make an operetta—costumes, scenery, stage building, posters, programs—but all to give the final polish to the Harvey Loomis adoption of Gounod's opera "Faust," which will be presented Friday, May 13.

Mephistopheles successfully bribe the aged philosopher, Faust, with youth, love and a beautiful girl. The contract is signed without Faust realizing that Mephistopheles intends to be waited upon in hell in return for his "gifts" to Faust. The departure of Valentine and his soldiers leaving Margarita under the protection of only Siebel plays right into the plans of the devil of fulfilling the wishes of Faust.

Faust, aged scholar, Edwin Brandt; Mephistopheles, the devil, Bruce Brown; Margarita, a beautiful maiden, Shirley Hayes; Valentine, her brother, Wayne Emery; Siebel, a village youth devoted to Margarita, Jerry Tindall; Wagner, a soldier, Harry Witherspoon, and Martha, a gossip, Mary Scott.

The operetta is under the direction of Mrs. Charles Scott, music supervisor, and Miss A. Martha Matthews, speech director.

Wage Tax Payments Now Total $135,000

Rush to make payments of wage tax withheld by employers, plus payments by individuals from whom no tax was withheld, has ended at the city Wage Tax bureau, and according to a statement today approximately $135,000 has been paid at the Wage Tax office.

Individuals have until June 15 to make complete returns, it was stated.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

Among weird goings-on in the publishing business, the actions of Theodore Dreiser rate high. In 1906, Dreiser was appointed managing editor of the Delineator and celebrated his first day at the post by gravely rejecting two of his own stories.

In 1916, Ring Lardner wrote his fabulously funny diary of Jack Keefe, the bush-league ball player. He called it, "You Know Me, Al".

So many readers asked him to name the man on whom his caricature was based that he added this footnote to subsequent editions: "The original of Jack Keefe is not a ball player at all, but Jane Addams of Hull House, a former 'Polles' girl."

Lardner visited Paducah, Ky., one day to interview Irvin Cobb. "Mr. Cobb took me into his library," reported Lardner, "and showed me his books, of which he has a complete set."
